SHENANGO POTTERY GOING TO SOUTH POLE

Can't Look At Night Club Shows In Sober Mind

(Special To The News)

SANTA MONICA, Cal., Aug. 2.—See where they are really stopping 'em selling booze in the night clubs in New York. That means that they just have to go out of business, for you can't look at those shows sober.

It's this woman Willebrandt that is doing all this, and she is a Republican. The Democrats will say that it is just a political move, but when you take away an out-of-town yap's booze it's more than politics. It comes under the heading of disaster.

For how is he going to tell the folks back home what a devil he was in New York if he can't buy some courage?

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

While New Castle escaped the big storm of last night, the territory north of the city got rain a plenty. In the vicinity of Farrell, a cloudburst occurred, while as close as New Wilmington there was a heavy rain. Both the Shenango and Neshannock rivers were at a high stage this morning, the rains north causing them to rise rapidly during the night.

Post office authorities report some increase in the use of the air mail here. New Castle patrons of the post office would do well to give attention to the matter of making use of the air mail service, especially since the rates have been greatly reduced. The matter of securing a stop of the air mail planes at local airports could be greatly stressed if the air mail business out of the city would show a noticeable increase.

The State Highway Department issues warning that the white lines on the state highways must be respected. It would be a satisfaction to many auto drivers if there was some method by which dense drivers could be made to understand what the traffic lines at Jefferson and Grant streets mean. They are plain enough to New Castle drivers, but many of the drivers from other states who want to turn into Grant street, drive up the Jefferson street traffic lane and then stop, blocking traffic for all autos going north above Grant street.

New Castle's public school buildings are again taking on the appearance of being ready for the thousands of children who will study in them this fall. Much of the summer renovating and remodelling is completed, and the schools are nearly ready for the pupils once more.

Word from Herbert Pealrs, president of the New Castle Civic Music association to the effect that all arrangements have been completed for the coming concert season has come to Pa Newc. A definite announcement of the dates on which these artists will appear is to be made in the near future.

Friday is the day set for the Inter-County Grange picnic and ox roast, to be held at the farm of J. Audley Boak, just off the Harlansburg road on the way to the Boy Scout camp. To those who have been raised in the city (and they are cordially invited) an ox roast will prove something of a novelty. After all, it is not often that anyone gets to see 550 pounds of bull meat cooking at the same time. Pa Newc saw it once, and it sizzled in connection with a Pennsylvania Dutch wedding, the festivities lasting three days.

Traces of the heavy rain of a few weeks ago still linger on sidewalks surprisingly close to the downtown section of the city. Some side walks on the lower part of South Croton avenue are still caked with mud, and apparently no effort is being made to remove it.

Wednesday afternoon, Pa Newc had the privilege of seeing the storerooms of The Castleton, and they are something to write about. All sorts of foods are there; no matter what one wants, they seem to have it.

Commander Byrd To Use Shenango Pottery At Pole

New Castle Plant Receives Order For Pottery For South Pole Expedition

SHIPMENT SENT FROM PLANT TODAY

Local Product Will Be First To Be Taken Into South Pole Region

Pottery manufactured in New Castle is to be used on the expedition to the South Pole, about to be started by Commander Richard Byrd.

At the Shenango Pottery, in this city, the order was received today for the consignment, and it was immediately packed and rushed on toward Hoboken, N. J., where it will be placed on the supply ship Sampson, that is to start for the South Pole region in a few days.

Officials and workmen at the local pottery are taking a keen interest in this shipment, and in the fact that the local product is to be used on such a noted expedition. There is no doubt but that the pottery made here will reach the South Pole, for the expedition is in charge of a commander who has notable achievements to his credit, and everything is being done to provide for success of the expedition.

First to Reach Pole

New Castle pottery is used in the four corners of the world, and it is now to be the first to be taken along in penetrating the South Pole regions.

The shipment is being rushed to Hoboken so that there will be no delay in its arrival at the supply ship.

The local pottery is elated over landing this order, as it is one that has a deep significance, and demonstrates the widespread demand for the product of the local plant—the largest making hotel ware in the world.

Commander Byrd's expedition is one that is being fitted out in a thorough manner. The supply ship will penetrate as far south as possible, and the trip over the pole will be made in a plane. Exploration in the region will also be made from the supply bases established.

Local Streams At High Stage

Rise Several Feet During Night As Result Of Storms North Of City

MERCER COUNTY SUFFERS BIG LOSS

As a result of heavy rains north of this city last night, the waters of the Shenango are swollen considerably today and the Neshannock creek was raised four feet. This morning the two rivers were quite restless and the swift current carried huge heaps of debris on the top of the water.

Campers out along the Neshannock at various places fled from their cottages and tents when the creek came up suddenly.

The rain seemingly stopped entirely out along the New Wilmington road. Although the storm was not as terrific in the immediate New Wilmington district.

At West Middlesex it is reported that the bridge on the improved highway to Sharon has been washed out by the storm. Farrell streets were washed considerably and the little town has a multitude of cellars that are full of water.

The storm missed New Castle entirely, and from all reports there has been no damage done by the swollen streams.

DEATH RECORD

Miss Eupha John, 53, 323 Winter avenue.

WEST MIDDLESEX HIT BY TERRIFIC STORM

(International News Service)

SHARON, Pa., Aug. 2—Rain-soaked Mercer county took an estimate of its flood damage today following last night's deluge which swept the county causing streams and creeks to overflow their banks, and drove residents in certain sections from their homes.

The cloudburst, which was reported to have hit all of western pennsylvania, lasted for more than an hour. West Middlesex was especially hard hit by the storm.

Near West Middlesex, more than a mile of Pennsylvania railroad tracks was damaged while roads were made impassible by the ravages of the cloudburst. Several homes there were flooded during the storm but the waters receded rapidly after the rain ceased. A bridge on the New Castle and Sharon road was swept away.

No estimate has been made of the amount of damage done.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT HERE INSPECTING SITES FOR NEW POST OFFICE

Donald E. Doyle, assistant architectural engineer, U. S. Treasury department, with offices in Washington, D. C., is in New Castle today in regards to the extension or addition to the present post office building, or a new building.

Mr. Doyle, wth Postmaster Edwin W. Crawford has been viewing sites adjacent to the present building at the corner of North Mercer and North streets and also other prospective sites in other parts of the business district, several in the North Jefferson district.

It is probable that Mr. Doyle will remain in the city until tomorrow, at which time he will return to his headquarters in Washington where he will make his report concerning the sites here.

Mr. Doyle would not discuss the sites which he viewed or the matter of constructing an addition to the present building, or a new building. He would state no further than that he had visited the North Jefferson street area and found that the properties there all had their virtues.

Coolidge Taken On Tour Through Big Iron Range

Great Missable Iron Range Of Minnesota Is Inspected By Coolidge Today

By GEORGE E. DURNO,
International News Service Staff Correspondent

SUPERIOR, Wis., Aug. 2.—President Coolidge left here today for a tour of the Great Missable Iron Range of Minnesota from whence comes half of the iron ore used by the entire nation.

It was a United States Steel corporation party, for the President's hosts for the day were the Duluth, Missabe and Northern railway, the Duluth and Iron Range railroad and the Oliver Mining company—all subsidiaries of the Steel Trust.

Touring out from Hibbing and Virginia, Minn., the executive and his party were to be shown the largest open pit mine in the world and the largest White Pine mill in the world, among other points of interest.

Ends Fifth Year.

Today marks the ending of Mr. Coolidge's fifth and last year in the White House. In seven months he retires as he manifested to do when he issued his famous "do not choose" statement in the Black Hills a year ago today.

A review of the five years finds an administration that sailed calm seas. No great national crises were placed before President Coolidge for decision and as a whole the country remained fairly prosperous and content. Five successive reductions in the national tax schedule and the lopping of several billion dollars from the national debt are perhaps the achievements to which Mr. Coolidge can point with the most pride.

His effort to put through a further reduction in world armaments failed at Geneva, but just recently the administration successfully has negotiated a 14-power pact outlawing war. For the rest, the executive has continued the policies put into effect under President Harding by such men as Herbert Hoover, Andrew Mellon and Charles G. Dawes.

Rev. C. H. Holcomb Quits As Pastor Of First Church

Resignation Of Pastor Of First Christian Church Becomes Effective At Once

NO STATEMENT ON BOARD'S ACTION

Rev. Holcomb Pastor Here For Two Years; Came From Barberton, O.

At the meeting of the official board of the First Christian church on Wednesday evening, Rev. C. H. Holcomb, who has been pastor of the congregation for the past two years, presented his resignation, which is to become effective at once, according to members of the board.

No statement was made by the board as to the cause of this summary action, but a number of meetings have been held by the official board recently, at which the relations of the pastor and the congregation were discussed, and it is understood that the resignation was the outcome.

Rev. Holcomb assumed charge of the local congregation, two years ago last May, having been in charge of a revival service here prior to becoming

Hoover Convinced Need To Preserve National Forests

Herbert Hoover Returns From Fishing Trip; Gets Knowledge Of Forests

SAYS PRESERVATION IS IMMEDIATE NEED

Presidential Nominee To Start Work At Once On Notification Speech

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WOODLAND, Cal., Aug. 2.—(Enroute to San Francisco with Hoover,)—Herbert Hoover went back to his duties as Republican nominee for president today with a firm conviction that the Federal Government and the States must take heroic steps to save the forests of America.

After a five day vacation in northern California and southern Oregon, Hoover returns with a thorough knowledge of forest conditions on the Pacific slope. He idled away all of yesterday on tour of forests and watersheds in the vicinity of Mount Shasta.

The candidate conversed with forest rangers, showing extraordinary interest in their efforts to check forest fires and the government's activity in reforestration.

Works on Speech

The nominee will resume work at once on his speech accepting the Republican presidential nomination, which will be delivered in Leland Stanford University Stadium August 11.

Hoover's last day in the mountains saw him fishing but half an hour. He arose with the dawn, drove ten miles across the mountains to McCloud and breakfasted at a lumber camp. Then he went to Mount Shasta's base, studied forest conditions, and then to Medicine Lake. His son, Allan Hoover, caught a twelve inch trout as soon as their lines were cast in the lake. Hoover again failed to land a fish but he expressed no disappointment.

On the way back Hoover told his companions there was dire necessity of saving the forests, of greater reforestration and more conservation. He said he was disappointed with conditions in California's famous mountain land.

SPANISH FLIERS FORCED DOWN; TO RESUME FLIGHT FRIDAY

(International News Service)

HUELVA, Spain, Aug. 2.—Forced down here by motor trouble, Commander Ramon Franco and his three companions will resume their round-the-world flight tomorrow.

Franco favors starting tomorrow instead of today because tomorrow is the anniversary of the beginning of Christopher Columbus' voyage to America in 1492. Franco had originally intended starting his flight from Cadiz tomorrow but had made yesterday's hop-off because of extremely favorable weather condition.

With his companions, Captains Ruiz de Alda and Gallarza, of the Spanish Royal Flying Forces, and the civilian mechanic, Pablo Rada, Franco hopped off from Cadiz. Less than a hundred miles southeast of here at 7:30 a. m. yesterday. Encountering slight trouble with one of the four motors of the huge Dornier seaplane Numancia, Franco turned back and made a safe landing here.

The fliers spent the night as the guests of the Rabida Monastery here which is famed as a haven used by Columbus during the years when he was trying to persuade the Spanish court to finance his voyage of discovery.

News of the turning back of the Spanish fliers caused great disappointment throughout Spain.

Ox Is Roasting At Book Farm

Will Be Ready For Serving At Grange Picnic On Friday

SECRETARY JORDAN WILL BE PRESENT

Out on the farm of J. Audley Boak a 550 pound two year old ox is roasting, so that everything will be in readiness for Friday noon, when it will be served to the Inter-County Grange picnic, which will be attended by grangers from all parts of Pennsylvania.

Shortly after noon today the ox was placed in the ovens by Kilner Harris, of Indiana, Pa., a professional in his line, who was brought to Lawrence county especially to prepare the ox. The ovens have been erected in Mr. Boak's orchard. Tomorrow spe-

A Marital Wreck

Judge, Who Preached Happiness To Couples He Wed, Now Busy Regretting His Own Union; Bride, 18, In Jail

Bernice Gregory Hitchings and Judge Thomas Hitchings

By PHIL M. HITCHCOCK
Staff Writer for Central Press and New Castle News

BELLEVILLE, Ill., Aug. 2. — For many years Judge Thomas Hitchings, of Belleville, has been giving young couples advice on "How to Be Happy Though Married." Now he's busy trying to recover from a marital adventure of his own, in which he took to himself an 18-year-old wife.

The wife, Bernice Gregory Hitchings, against whom the judge has filed divorce proceedings, is under sentence of from one year to life for participating in the robbery of a state bank at Vernon, Ill.

A May-December Romance

Bernice Gregory was just 18, and thoroughly modern, when she took a job in Judge Hitchings' court as clerk. Soon after the judge proposed and was accepted. He gave his young wife an auto, a large diamond ring, and a platinum wedding ring, and took her to his boarding house to live.

But the sedate life as a judge's wife didn't suit Bernice—so she borrowed the car he had given her and started for Chicago without letting her husband know where she was going. He had the police arrest her for removing mortgaged property.

Bernice begged the sheriff of Cook county not to send her back to Belleville. "I can't stand his ways," she declared. "All he wants me to do is to read musty old books."

But Judge Hitchings promised her

Senator-Elect Vare Has Stroke

Reported Critically Ill At Summer Home At Atlantic City This Morning

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 2.—United States Senator-Elect William S. Vare of Pennsylvania was reported in a critical condition today at his summer home at 137 South Berkley Square, Ventnor City, near here.

Mr. Vare suffered a stroke of apoplexy last night but this was not revealed until this morning when it was stated that Mrs. Vare also was prostrated and under the care of a physician because of the shock of her husband's illness.

Physicians attending Mr. Vare would not say his condition was alarming but did admit that it was critical.

Sharon Traffic Must Detour

Bridge Is Out On New Castle-Sharon Road At West Middlesex

Traffic from New Castle to Sharon must be re-routed because a bridge at West Middlesex was washed away by heavy rains which deluged Mercer county Wednesday evening.

Bernard N. Hanlon, secretary-manager of the New Castle Motor club, suggests that all traffic from New Castle to Sharon should proceed by way of Coltsville and Hubbard, O.

Police Officer In Auto Crash

Allegedly Under Influence Of Liquor At Time Of Accident

NOT ON DUTY AT TIME OF MISHAP

An automobile ride on West Grant street which ended in a collision with another man's car is the cause of the arrest of Officer Clarence Samuels, on the charge of driving while under the influence of liquor.

Not On Duty

The accident occurred at about 8:30 this morning. Officer Samuels was in uniform, although he was not on duty for the police department.

According to the report made to police by F. D. Burgoon of 307 North Shenango street, he was half way between Beaver and Shenango streets, going east on Grant street when the accident happened. Officer Samuels was driving west on Grant street, also on the wrong side of the street. A crash resulted, in which Mr. Burgoon's car was damaged and Officer Samuels was scratched about the face.

Officer Augostine answered a call which came into the police station. Later Officers Lynch and Longstreth went out on the same call.

Officer Samuels was brought to the police station by Officers Lynch and Longstreth to be interrogated by the Mayor and the Chief of Police. According to the police doctor he was under the influence of liquor.

He was sent home until his condi-

High Water On Pennsy Tracks

Storm Causes Traffic Delay In Vicinity Of West Middlesex

Reports reaching local divisional headquarters of the Pennsylvania railroad this morning to the effect that approximately one mile of the company's tracks on the Pittsburgh and Erie branch and in the vicinity of West Middlesex, had been covered with water and the foundations washed some during the heavy rain which centered over that vicinity last night.

According to the informations filed, no passengar trains operating in that territory were delayed by the waters although the progress of freight trains were delayed for a maximum period of four hours. The advices say that the storm broke out about 8:30 p. m. and it was not until about 2:30 a. m. today that the regular travel was restored.

The line will be in its ordinary condition just as soon as the track foundations are repaired, the reports say.

Five Steamers Rushing To Aid Marooned Fliers

Believe Courtney And Companions Will Soon Be Picked Up By Liner

SEAPLANE IS DOWN 500 MILES AT SEA

Fliers In No Immediate Danger, Says Radio Message Sent Out

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—A fleet of at least five trans-Atlantic steamships are rushing today to the aid of Capt. Frank T. Courtney and his three companions, whose seaplane was forced down into the ocean approximately 500 miles west of the Azores while attempting an 1,800-mile flight from Horta to Newfoundland.

The rescue fleet includes the President Hayes, Minnewaska, Columbus, Cedric and Celtic.

Steamers En Route

The liner Franconia notified British wireless stations that Courtney and his fellow flyers were in no immediate danger and that the Celtic and Cedric were going to their assistance.

The Radio Marine Corporation was advised through Chatham, Mass., wireless station that the Columbus, Minnewaska and President Hayes had changed their positions to give succor to the stranded airmen.

A radiogram to the Radio Marine Corporation from the motorship Cricsholm at 7:45 a. m., E. S. T., reported the Columbus on its way to the Courtney seaplane. At 9:10 a. m., E. S. T., the Pennland sent a radiogram saying the Minnewaska and President Hayes were speeding to pick up the flyers.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Capt. Frank T. Courtney, British aviator, attempting a flight from the Azores to Newfoundland, is down in mid-ocean about 500 miles west of his starting point, according to a message from the liner Berengeria received today by the Radio Marine Corporation here. Courtney and three companions hopped off from Horta, Azores, late yesterday afternoon.

The Berengeria's message stated that it had received an indistinct wireless message from an unnamed ship saying that Courtney was down

There are times to be a fighter, there are other times for peace, there are times when thoughts of battle cries should lag and the time to be a gentleman, if ever there is one, is when some big cop hands your motor car a tag. Now of course you did not want it, you were'nt speeding not a bit, or you hadn't parked your car there such a while, but the thing is not to grumble, nor to sock him on the beak, just accept the tag and rustle up a smile. Ask him how his crops are growing, is his family all well, tell him that he is a handsome looking guy, do not argue with the copper, do not say he is a crook, and by all means do not sock him in the eye. Just a smile may get you fixed up, and a kind word now and then and perhaps he'll throw the little tag away, but do not get tough, oh brother, or the cost will all be yours, weather's getting warm, its seventy-eight today.

Guardsmen Stage Imaginary Battle

Most Interesting Part Of Summer Camp Is Imaginary Battles With "Red" Foes

111TH INFANTRY WINS FIELD MEET

(International News Service)

CAMP HENDERSON, MOUNT GRETNA, Pa., Aug. 2.—Settling down to a busy day of advanced training following the field meet yesterday, the 4,500 troops of the 28th Division here encamped under the command of Major General William C. Price, Jr., today began the most interesting problems of the field training.

All headquarter units, service and signal troops and staff, regimental and brigade officers are taking part in the command post maneuvers in which the 28th Division grapples with an imaginary "Red" enemy from beyond the Susquehanna.

The 103rd observation squadron of Philadelphia, under Major J. Sidney Owens and the 213th Coast Artillery, anti-aircraft unit, under Colonel Clarence B. Smith, of Allentown, will also participate.

Troops of the 111th Infantry regiment, commanded by Colonel Charles B. Finley, containing companies from Philadelphia, Doylestown, Chester, Media, Norristown, West Chester and other eastern Pennsylvania cities, won the division field meet yesterday, making an average time of 16 minutes flat for all events.

Colonel Jackson W. Etudy's command, the 103rd Engineers, of Philadelphia, took second place, making an average time of 16 minutes and eight seconds, while the 112th Infantry, Colonel C. Blaine Smathers, of Grove City, commanding, was third with a time of 16 minutes and 39 seconds. The 213th Coast Artillery was fourth with a time of 15 seconds more than the third place winners.

This meet was modeled after the University of Pennsylvania relay races and ranked second to the relays in size. There were 3,000 entrants in the meet, the largest ever undertaken by the National Guard.

Mayor W. H. Gillespie and Chief of Police C. C. Horner made no statement as to probable action to be taken in the case, but suspension from the police force, pending an investigation is the usual procedure, prior to charges being made.

PLAN MEMORIAL FOR CAPTAIN COOK

At this place, near Kaawaloa, Kealakekua bay, island of Hawaii, a tablet will be placed to the memory of Capt. James Cook, famous English navigator, who was slain here by natives in 1779. The memorial ceremony occurs in August. An obelisk marking the spot where Cook fell can be seen.

Library Fines Total $713.24 In Course Of Year

It may be a nuisance to some people when they have to pay a fine at the public library, but it's a good source of revenue as far as the library is concerned, because in the year of 1927 just $713.24 was paid to the New Castle library in fines when persons failed to return books promptly. The sum was twice as great as the revenue received from the pay collection, as $306.53 was received from books in the pay collection.

These figures are but two examples of the interesting things that the yearly report of the New Castle public library's treasurer, Clarence Patterson, discloses.

The amount paid in for books lost during the year was $82.06, while donations totaled $2,040.05 and $28,715.86 was received at the library from the city's tax.

Boardwalk "Hot Dog" To Get Test In Court

ATLANTIC CITY, Aug. 2.—What is a hot dog sandwich?

In the opinion of Robert Brown, who has taken an affidavit on the matter, it consists of a "hot dog placed in a roll with mustard, for which he paid 10 cents."

But the man who sold Brown the sandwich told him, "you are not buying 'hot dog,' you are only buying the roll and the mustard."

The States Avenue Realty Company has filed contempt proceedings against the lessees of a boardwalk store, alleging that they violated a temporary court order restraining them from selling "hot dogs" in violation of the lease.

Louis Miller, George Miller, Harry Goldstein, Charles Goldstein and Aaron Pickard, were ordered to show cause before Vic Chancellor Ingersoll August 7.

Hoover And Party Arrive In Oakland

OAKLAND, Cal., Aug. 2.—Herbert Hoover, presidential nominee, and his party of friends who have been on a vacation trip in northern California for the past few days, arrived here at 9:30 this morning coast time. The party will leave for Palo Alto by motor at 11 o'clock from San Francisco.

Power Station Of Columbus Radio Co. Destroyed By Fire

(International News Service)

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 2.—Fire believed to have been started by a short circuit, destroyed the 5,000-watt power station of WAIU, local radio broadcast station here today at an estimated loss of $75,000 to $100,000.

It will require weeks to rebuild the power station but in the meantime WAIU officials hope to hold broadcast interruptions to a minimum by using the generating station of another local broadcaster.

Fiddlers Of 20 States Will Meet Saturday

COATESVILLE, Aug. 2.—At least twenty states will be represented next Saturday at the annual convention of the Old Fiddlers' Association of Chester and Lancaster counties, according to acceptances received up until today.

The meeting will take the form of an all-day picnic at Crystal Springs Park, near Parkesburg.

Hoon Is Getting His Share Of Fish

According to word received from L. S. Hoon, sanitary police officer, who with his family, is enjoying a two weeks vacation at Conneaut Lake, is having a great time fishing. On Monday morning, he caught thirty yellow perch, the smallest of which was eight inches in length. He caught these in the lake, while out in a boat.

Former Kentucky Governor Dies

William S. Taylor, Former Governor Of Kentucky, Victim Of Bladder Trouble

WAS FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE

(International News Service)

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind, Aug. 2. — William S. Taylor, 74, former Governor of Kentucky, died at the Methodist hospital here early today after an illness of two months from bladder trouble.

Taylor had been in Indiana since shortly after the assassination of Governor Goebel of Kentucky. He fled to this state when efforts were made by Kentucky authorities to hold him in connection with the shooting which occurred in the shadow of the State Capitol at Frankfort, Ky. Indiana officials, holding the view that Taylor could not obtain a fair trial in Kentucky because of political conditions there, refused to honor extradition requests.

After engaging in the practice of law for some time, Taylor became vice-president and general counsel of the Empire Life Insurance company in Indianapolis.

No decision concerning funeral arrangements has been made pending the arrival of a son, Wendell S. Taylor, of San Gabriel, Calif.

WINS 44 MILE BLISTER DERBY

Back Bay Dancing King Is Winner In 44 Mile Dance Marathon

(International News Service)

BOSTON, Aug. 2.—Louis Lerner, the "back bay dancing king," this afternoon won the 44-mile Providence, R. I., to Boston "blister derby".

When Lerner, dancing and walking, ended the long grind over the highways at the four corners of Boylston and Tremont street, in the heart of the city's shopping district, at 12:47 p. m., he was miles ahead of Harry Wiseman, Boston dancing master and originator of the "dancing duel".

Noon day throngs watched Lerner and his stockingless six girl partners struggle in the intense heat into the business section of the city. They had been on the road almost continuously since 12:20 a. m. Two of the "dancing king's" girl partners collapsed enroute and Lerner himself fell by the wayside once.

The "dark horse" in the "jazz marathon," George Sleeper, with two girl partners, dropped out in Westwood, about 20 miles from the finish, their feet blistered to the quick.

Wiseman and his nine girl partners charged Lerner with not dancing the whole way, claiming they walked arm in arm most of the distance.

California Crew Olympic Winner

at a position estimated to be 500 miles west of the Azores.

The Berengeria's message was picked up by the Cape Race wireless station at six o'clock this morning, the Radio Marine Corporation stated.

Report Confirmed

A second radio message confirming the report that Captain Courtney had been forced down was received at 7:30 a. m. by the Radio Marine Corporation from the British steamship Bristol. It stated that Captain Courtney had been forced down in a position 42 degrees north and 41 degrees west. He asked immediate help, but said he is in no immediate danger.

Courtney was in communication by radio with the White Star liner Cedric, which is about 100 miles north of him.

Courtney used a Dornier-Napier flying boat, or seaplane, equipped with pontoons. The plane carried a radio apparatus manned by an expert operator, E. W. Gilmour, of Glasgow. Before leaving the Azores the plane was carefully overhauled and the pontoons scraped to rid them of all superfluous weight.

Rescue Is Near

The length of time that the plane could remain afloat was problematical, depending upon the weather and water. In calm water, experts said, the plane might remain afloat indefinitely or until weakened by the battering of the mid-ocean waves.

Seafaring men pointed out that, if the plane came down approximately 500 miles west of Horta it probably would soon be sighted by passing steamships. It was in the same region that Ruth Elder's plane was forced down last year while she and George Haldeman, her pilot, were attempting a flight from America to Europe. They were in sight of a Dutch tankship bound for a Texas port when they were forced down and were picked up immediately.

When the Coutrney flying boat left the Azores it was heavily fueled and, in addition to this weight, carried four persons. In addition to Courtney and the wireless operator, the personnel on board included E. Hosmer, a Motreal banker and financial sponsor of the flight, and Fred Pierce, a mechanician.

The distance from the starting point to Newfoundland is approximately 1,800 miles. If Courtney were forced down where the Berengaria's radiogram indicated, he had completed less than one-third of his journey.

a larger spending allowance if she returned. She, therefore, tried living with him again, and the charge was not pressed.

The judge, however, found the young wife a costly venture. He cut her spending allowance to nothing.

Then Bernice got busy. She persuaded her friend, Tom Mueller, her cousin, Ruth Gregory, and Newman Cox, to help her rob the state bank at Vernon. They escaped with $3,200, but Bernice and Tom were caught a few days later. They made full confessions of the crime. Cox and Ruth Gregory escaped, but were captured some time later.

Hitchings, who had been known throughout St. Clair county as the marrying judge, has a daughter older than Bernice, and is also a grandfather. He has married hundreds of young couples.

CHURCH WEDDING IS EVENT OF WEDNESDAY

Outstandingly pretty are words descriptive of the wedding of Miss Willa M. Boyd to Robert A. Houston at 4 o'clock in the New Wilmington United Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon. The couple were married by Dr. J. Howard Boyd father of the bride who was assisted by Dr. W. B. Anderson of Philadelphia.

As she stepped to the altar with her brother John H. Boyd who gave her away, the bride wore a gown of white satin and lace and a venetian lace veil. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses, orchids and sweet peas. The attendants of the bride. Miss Jean Boyd and Miss Mona Sowash wore gowns of pale green chiffon with picture hats of the same color. They both carried bouquets of garden flowers.

The best man was Maurice Anderson and the ushers were Thomas Mansell and George Herriott. The couple were married with the ring ceremony. Both are graduates of Westminster college and Mr. Houston is a senior at Jefferson Medical school in Philadelphia.

Following the wedding a tea reception was given at the home of the bride. About 70 guests were present at this reception and 14 were seated at the bride's table. They were the bride and groom Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Boyd, Miss Jean Boyd, Miss Genevive Houston, Miss Mona Sowash, Miss Margaret Bell, Miss Rosamund Sowash, Miss Mary Smith, Maurice Anderson, Thomas Mansell, George Herriott, Thomas Herriott and Bud Mansell.

Immediately after the reception the bride and groom left for Philadelphia from which point they will proceed to Lake George.

Phillips Circle

Phillips Circle of the First Christian church will hold a picnic dinner at Lakewood Beach next Monday evening, August 6, at 6:30. The committee in charge of the event include Mrs. Milton Vaughn, Mrs. William Hanna, Mrs. Ernest Smith, Mrs. Henry Rodgers, Mrs. R. C. Gilmore.

CHOIR MEMBERS ARE GUESTS AT DINNER

St. John's Lutheran choir members were guests at a prettily appointed chicken dinner, given by Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Drakem at their home near Princeton, Wednesday evening. The large table set on the lawn was beautifully decorated with garden flowers. Covers were arranged for 12 guests, with Rev. and Mrs. F. E. Stough as special guests.

The hostess was assisted by the following committee: Mrs. Richards, chairman; Mrs. R. A. Stine, Miss Louise Hines, Mrs. M. A. Hess and Miss E. Bruden.

After dinner hours were spent socially with games and singing.

McBride Reunion.

The sixth annual reunion of the McBride family took place Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McBride of Almira avenue. An elaborate dinner was served on the lawn and the tables were beautifully decorated with snapdragon. Covers were laid for 56 guests.

The afternoon was spent enjoyably with informal pastimes and the following officers were elected: President H. P. McBride; vice president, Edward McBride; secretary and treasurer, Raymond H. McBride and historian Mrs. P. J. Meehan.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Catherine Hanna of Pittsburgh, Mr. and Mrs. David Lewis, Roy Lewis, Mrs. Robert Grimm, Joseph Lewis, Mrs. Elizabeth Davies, Charles Davies, Miss Eleanor Davies, Mrs. Audley Davies and son Charles, Miss Florence M. McCASKEY-ALEXANDER WEDDING SOLEMNIZED

A pretty but quiet wedding was solemnized today at high noon in the Highland United Presbyterian church when Miss Margaret E. McCaskey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. McCaskey, Whippo street, became the bride of Lester M. Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Alexander, Albert street. Dr. C. J. Williamson officiated with the ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate families.

The bride was attractive in a gown of white chiffon and carried an arm bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. James D. Crawford, sister of the bride, was her only attendant, and wore a gown of blue georgette. She carried a shower of dresden flowers. Dr. James D. Crawford served as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Alexander left for a motor trip to Canada and the New England states.

The bride is a graduate of the local high school class of '24, and Slippery Rock State Teachers college and attended the University of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Alexander is a graduate of the local high school class of 1918 and W. & J. college. He is a member of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity and is now associated with the Equitable Life Assurance company.

WHY HE SUPPORTS HOOVER

IN AN interesting statement just made public Prof. Irving Fisher, author, lecturer and economist at Yale, sets forth the reasons why he will support Herber Hoover for president this year. He has studied the men, their experience and fitness for the position, their ideals and what is represented by them, from the standpoint of an independent voter. He supported Roosevelt and Taft, he voted twice for Wilson. He gave his support to the man whose ideas and ideals seemed to promise most of promotion for the large national interests and maintain American progress along the best lines. His eminence as a scholar, citizen, and student of national problems makes his reasons interesting and his decision important.

Mr. Fisher says that Mr. Hoover is a great engineer and administrator, a constructive idealist, who plans and does things. He is an humanitarian, came before the people as a friend of his fellow man, not as a politician, and became a world figure, eagerly sought when humanity was suffering in any part of the world.

He is a practical economist, knows the woes that follow when governmental policies violate economic laws and has shown in the development of his department how science and economics can prevent waste and revolutionize industry with advantage to owners and the public.

The one reason, more than all others, is that Mr. Hoover's experience with national and world problems, and his intimate knowledge of them, prepare him to meet the duties of the next four years in such a manner that no other man can approach him in point of equipment ready for service. Mr. Hoover was born and trained as a Quaker, a lover of peace, a training that has a world significance with the situation presented to the nation today.

Incidentally Prof. Fisher is opposed to Tammany and the political thought of that organization and can see no sound reason why its chosen son should be given the reins of national government, although he admits the likable qualities of Gov. Al Smith.

Taking the fitness of Mr. Hoover, considering the problems of today and the indicated situations of the future, Prof. Fisher sees impressive prospects for solving many problems the right way, to the large advantage of the men and women of the nation, if he is chosen president.

These are a few reasons he gives why he intends to support Mr. Hoover and hopes he may be chosen head of the nation at the November election.

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN

THE Chicago professor who has gained a little brief notoriety by his declaration that 90 per cent of the women are homely, probably is one of those odious "effficiency experts." They recken everything in percentages. Whatever he is, he is woefully off his base in making such an assertion.

Ninety per cent, indeed! Not even in Chicago, we venture to say, will so large a proportion of homely women be found. And in New Castle not 90 per cent, nor nine per cent—no, it cannot be conceded that even one per cent of our women are homely.

There are different standards of judging feminine pulchritude. Turks and Eskimos are said most to admire women who are, let us say, plump, well-rounded, moon-faced. Others prefer the svelt type. Ideas concerning beauty vary.

The Standard dictionary, defining "beautiful," says: "The definition of 'beauty', 'perfection of form', is a good key to the meaning of 'beautiful', if we understand 'form' in its widest sense." It is submitted that under the terms of this definition (if we understand "form" in its widest sense) all women are beautiful. The dictionary goes on to say, however, that "there must be harmony and unity, and in human beings spiritual loveliness, to constitute an object or a person really beautiful.

No attempt will be made to answer for the women of Chicago as to whether they possess the additional requirement of spiritual loveliness. But it can be said in behalf of the fair ones of New Castle, without fear of successful contradition, that they have this, as well as unity and harmony.

SLOW DRIVER IS NEW MENACE

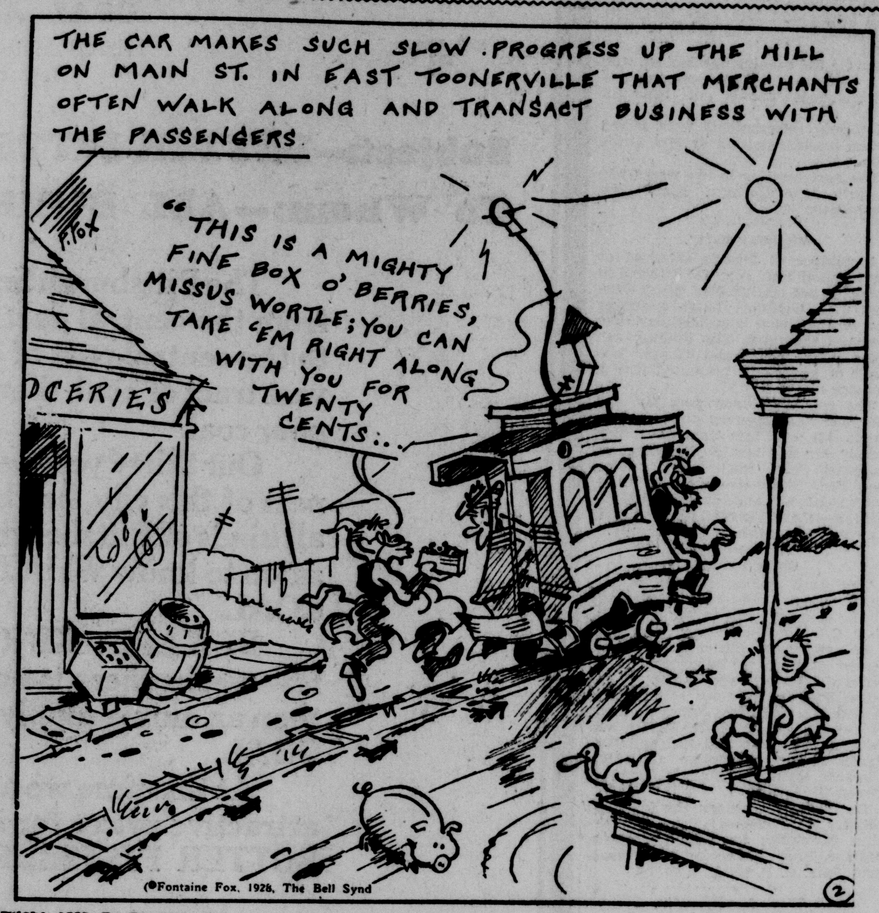

ANOTHER worm has turned. It was only a few years ago that the fast automobile driver was blamed for the great majority of traffic accidents and state lawmakers legislated against him to the utmost of their ability. Speed limits were fixed and an army of highway police maintained to enforce them. Pioneer motorists can recall when these limits were as low as six, eight and ten miles an hour and when twenty-five and thirty miles an hour were reckless rates of speed.

But times have changed. The slow driver has become a highway menace, frowned upon by both public and authority. In several states the highway departments have ordered the slow driver to speed up or drive aside to permit faster traffic to move to the head.

What have the passage of the years and the popularization of the automobile done to the speed limit? It is only in the most backward sections that one encounters limits as low as ten miles an hour, and elsewhere the legal maximum speed ranges from fifteen miles to an unlimited rate. Even limits of thirty and thirty-five miles are not enforced on the straight-away.

Good roads and better brakes are combining to make higher speeds safer. Those willing to face the facts must admit that a speed of forty miles an hour on modern roads is as safe if not safer than a speed of ten miles on the old narrow, high-crowned and rough roads. It must also be admitted that the slow driver creates congestion, causes collisions and incites jockeying to pass him. That there is such a thing as dangerously slow driving is not a new discovery for most motorists.

Hints and Dints

If Gabriel ever blows his horn during a traffic jam, the majority of people will think it just another klaxon.

It is stated that there are 40 different routes to California. That evidently does not include the best walking path there, either.

At Vandergrift, Pa., all motorists who refuse to allow fire trucks a clear passage on the streets will be prosecuted at the fullest extent possible. It seems to us that a fire truck would have the best of an argument with an ordinary automobile if the driver of the truck insisted on a clear street. We always get to the outskirts of the city when we hear a fire truck coming our way.

HER TO HIM

Your breath is sweet,
Your garters neat,
You wear the best brand collars,
Your suit is pressed
And you are dressed
Just like a million dollars.
Your shoes are shined,
Your ways refined,
No dandruff's on your coat,
I like your hair
And the hat you wear
And the tie about your throat.
I must admit
That you have "it",
Are handsome, brave and sleek,
But we can't wed
And continue fed
On twenty bucks a week.

The fellow who can win the respect and confidence of the newspaper reporters is no false alarm.

Mr. Tunney will retire from the fighting ring until such a time as proper inducements are offered to make him change his mind. It's not strange that a million dollars will change even the mind of a prize fighter. As long as the American people will stand for that kind of stuff there will be Rickards to gather in the coin and laugh up their sleeves.

Small responsibilities are what make little men wear big hats.

There are 937 cities in the United States that have only one newspaper, and 412 cities that have two or more newspapers. Newspapers are getting harder and harder to run and getting scarcer and scarcer every year.

President Coolidge is going to make several speeches for Mr. Hoover. This in itself is going to be a great help to the Republican nominee. Mr. Hoover is one of the strongest candidates ever nominated for President of the United States. He knows his people and the conditions under which they exist—and that's all one needs to know.

If the Pennsylvania Highway Department wants to do something worth while it can regulate the big trucks that cruise over the highways of this state. These monsters usually run right in the middle of the road and make such a terrible uproar that the driver cannot hear any horn of the ordinary automobile. And when a truck kills someone the driver always says he heard no horn, and he tells the truth. In Porto Rico the law requires that two men be on a truck, the driver and a man who rides in the rear and keeps the driver informed as to what is coming behind. And that is a good thing and would be mighty fine in this country.

ANOTHER ON THE SCOTCH.

A Scotchman went into a telegraph office and inquired how much it would cost to send a telegram to his home in Chicago.

"It will be five cents a word for ten words and there will be no charge for your signature," replied the clerk.

The Scotchman put the blank telegram form before him and picked up the pencil. He thought deeply for a few moments and then looked inquiringly at the clerk.

"Did you say there was no charge for the signature?' he asked.

"That's right" said the clerk.

"Well," said the Scotchman, "I may not look like an Indian, but I am one, and my name is I WON'T BE HOME

"You have acted very wrongly." Thus Horace's father, in the presence of Horace's mother, to Horace, discovered in the act of stealing jam.

"It may seem a small offense, Horace," he continued, "but it has for its foundations one of the prime causes of the world's unhappiness—disobedience. I am more than angry. I am grieved. I want my son to grow up to be a fine, strong, honorable man. I want him—" Here he paused for breath. Little Horace turned enthusiastically to his mother. All telephone calls originating in San Francisco's oriental quarter are received in a Chinatown Exchange, where all the operators are American-born Chinese girls. They have to master the 1,800 oriental names listed in the exchange, as numbers are seldom given by those who call. The operators wear picturesque Chinese garb. Most of the conversation passing over the wires is in the Chinese language, and it is therefore unintelligible to the average American operator. The architecture and furnishings of the exchange are oriental. The American Telephone & Telegraph Co. prizes this as one of their unique exchanges.

"There is no age limit on mental work," says Henry Ford, who has passed 65. He says men past 65 should not do too much running and jumping, but can do as much mental work as ever and better work.

Man's mysterious thinking power should not wear out, but the physical machine in which it works does wear out. Henry Ford would not keep any chauffeur that treated a machine as he treats the machine named Henry Ford.

On Saturday last Henry Ford left Binghamton, N. Y., in the morning and drove in a small Ford car steadily all day to his home in Dearborn, beyond Detroit, more than 400 miles, reaching there the same night.

That is a crime against the Ford company, and if Henry Ford did not own all the stock other stockholders would complain. Four hundred miles in one day in a small car means thousands of unconscious efforts of the brain, eyes and nerves, constantly on the alert. It means waste.

Henry Ford should remember that it is easy to get a new Ford when the old one wears out, but impossible to get a new Henry Ford.

Each of three Boy Scouts that went to Africa with Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnston shot a magnificent lion and saw 104 lions in all.

Wonderful excitement for three 15-year-old Scouts. But the lion, with all his power, is a timid creature.

The little Bushman, one of the lowest of human beings, too feeble to hurt big game on his own account, tracks the lion, while the latter is hunting. The lion kills a zebra or other animal, then the little Bushman scares away the king of beasts, and gorges himself on the lion's "kill." The Bushman can think a little. That beats the lion.

Roman coins dug up after 2,000 years are worth in silver and gold only what they were when buried.

This shows the importance of keeping your money earning interest. A silvery penny, like the one mentioned in the Bible, put out at interest, compounded annually for only 900 years, would amount to $1,270,000,000,000. That's more money than there is in the world.

Britain's coal mining problem resembles ours but is more acute. The coal industry is more important to Britain than to us.

Twenty-one thousand British miners, as a start, will be taught farming, then Britain will send them to Canada.

For two years the men get wages that will support them, and let them save $500. The home government will add $500. Canada will be expected to do the same to establish the men on free or low priced land. That seems intelligent.

Jose De Leon Toral murdered Obregon, according to Mexican police, to free the Mexican Catholic church from persecution. Yesterday the police of Mexico City arrested 17 nuns, including Sister Concepcion Acebedo de la Lata.

Police allege that Toral conceived the idea of assassinating Obregon in the convent at which Sister Concepcion is mother superior.

It is, however, well known in Mexico and elsewhere that the assassination of Obregon is the worst thing that could have happened, so far as the interests of the Mexican Catholic church are concerned.

The religious war in Mexico is evidently far from an end.

It was suggested here Tuesday that some little Lambs were running because they feared 7 or 8 per cent money. They got both Tuesday. Money started at 6, went to 6½, 7, 7½ and then 8.

A decent respect for the laws on usury must put some limit on interest charges, and it is hard to see how the big fellows that control the price of money will manage to curb the little fish.

Relatives of Alfred Loewenstein, Belgian millionaire, supposed to have jumped to death from his private airplane, ask French and Belgian authorities to seek out "those guilty of poisoning him," alleging that he was murdered.

It is a case to puzzle Sherlock Holmes. Loewenstein was thrown or jumped from the airplane into the channel. There were fewer than half a dozen in the plane with him. Which one could have done, it and how, without the others knowing it?

Students of Bangalore, India, annoyed by an unworthy site allotted to an image of their particular god, started riots. A regiment of lancers from Mysore quieted them. Fifty-five went to the hospital.

How much more sensible to have allowed their god to pick out his own site, take it and maintain it despite the authorities. If he couldn't do that, he couldn't be much of a god.

THE INTELLECTUAL LIFE

It is refreshing to note that a memorandum from the Student Council has been addressed to the university authorities at Yale formulating a series of reforms upholding the proposition that a college is primarily a place for study, and only incidentally for social and athletic recreation.

This will be refreshing to a number of fathers who are digging in to pay the expenses of their sons at school and heretofore have been worried because those sons seem to be more interested in sports and in social advantages than in intellectual improvement.

Of course every healthy boy is interested in athletics and is anxious to form proper social connections. But the general impression prevails among fathers that boys ought to go to school to improve themselves from the chin up and not from the chin down.

It has been too often the case that boys have attached a social stigma to those who get class marks higher than C. Those who go in for study have been characterized as "sharks" or "grinds". Reference to one's studies in social life has been looked upon with disdain and the only thing to be boasted is a place on the football team or the rowing crew.

Of course a boy is a healthy animal and he doesn't care to be subjected to intellectual snobbery, but at the same time, this New Haven memorandum asserts, a college finds its reason for being and its prestige in the achievements of the intellectual minority among students.

It has been generally presumed that the youth of the country is somewhat wild and is out for a good time only. Those who emphasize the things that are intellectual in any group of people must necessarily be in the minority, but it is refreshing to see that this minority has been coming into better repute during the last fifteen years. There are probably quite as many serious-minded youths in the country as there ever were. Youth is not all out for a wastrel life. There still remain quite a number of the elect. And on the whole the prospect for a better world in the future is bright.

This memorandum suggests that after the first two years the men who are assiduous in their studies are to be separated from those who are going in for a good time and barely enough study to get by. The honor men's instructors should be largely tutorial and they should have the best men on the faculty.

It is needless to say that this proposal of the undergraduates has the entire sympathy of the faculty.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

THEY DO NOT QUIT.

Germany started the war to accomplish many things. The Kaiser called it all the "Right to a place in the Sun." Germany sought for ocean ports open the year round, an open railway, owned and controlled by Germany through middle Europe, the Balkans, Turkey and Asia to India (coveted India also) and an open railway through Russia and Asia to the Pacific Ocean. Germany never gives up and it has just been announced that through European-Asiatic railroad service via Siberia has been put in operation from Berlin to Tokio, via Fusan.

Opening of this service had been postponed pending conclusion of the German-Polish Treaty. Passengers can now obtain through tickets from Germany to any station in Asiatic Russia, Japan and China, and have their baggage checked to destination, but on account of the uncertain conditions in China, the Chinese railroads are reported as not yet participating in the through traffic. The trip from Berlin to Tokio will take 14 days. A second-class ticket from Berlin to Tokio via Fusan will cost 534 marks, or approximately $130.

Of course, things are in a turmoil on the Manchurian Frontier, but the trains are running.

WILLIAM COMES COURTING

William comes a-courting,
And smiles his best on me;
His happiest behavior
Is offered me to see,
His eyes are bright with smiling,
He speaks a glad hello,
And asks me how I'm feeling,
As if he cared to know.

When William comes a-courting
He stands, with courteous air,
Until I say: "Be seated,"
And offer him a chair.
He asks about my business
And talks of all the news.
When William comes a-courting
I think he'd shine my shoes.

When William comes a-courting
It's plain as plain can be,
Although he wants my daughter
He's also courting me.
And I just sit and chuckle
To watch this hopeful lad,
For years ago, just like him,
I worked on Nellie's dad.

WHEN A MAN LOSES—

His self-respect he has lost the foundation of his character.
His health then he begins to pay some attention to it.
His religion then he begins to take refuge in his creeds.
His sense of humor the highway of life becomes extremely rough.
His respect for facts he becomes the slave of his prejudices.
His friends and keeps his conscience his best friend still remains.
His money there are plenty of folk who can tell him how he did it.

ELLEN TERRY

An actress whose mastery of her art and whose charm of personality placed her among the great of all time, Ellen Terry was inspiring when death approached as she had been through a long and brilliant life. These lines, written near the end, gave unique character to her funeral services:

"No funeral gloom, my dears, when I am gone,
Corpse gazings, tears, black raiment, graveyard grimness;
Think of me as withdrawn into the dimness,
Yours still, you mine.
Remember all the best of our past moments and forget the rest,
And so to where I wait come gently on."

"Summer flowers and golden sunshine were with Dame Ellen Terry at her funeral," quotes the Albany Evening News from the dispatches, and it suggests that "as the world was indebted to Ellen Terry for the beauty and the inspiration of her life, so, too, it is indebted to her for taking from death much of the depression and the dread of the gloom that attends it." The Milwaukee Journal welcomes "a thought of brightness for all who mourn," and asks: "How can gloom be any tribute to a memory that is bright?"

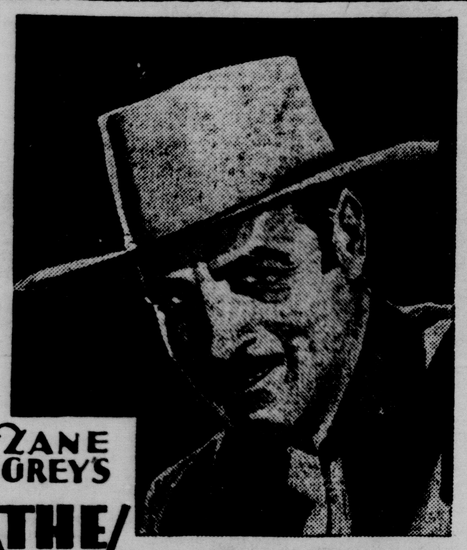

"Do the eyes see clearer as death approaches?" asks the Boston Transcript, wtih the answer: "Perhaps not always; but in Ellen Terry's case, despite her lately failing faculties, one is fain to believe she spoke as a seer. In that sense one receives her last wishes as a sort of psychic legacy to the world at large, for all the world were and are her friends." The Fort Worth Record-Telegram comments: "She placed the world in her debt a half-century ago. She added to that obligation yearly. But none was a greater one, or no one more to be taken home to the individual in personal appreciation than this latest one she gave us literally 'from the wings' as she saw the final 'curtain'."

"Now she has stepped off the stage," says the Oakland Tribune, "but long ago she entered the tradition. It is easy to imagine that Dame Terry, artist and honor to her profession, is welcomed on the other side by Irving, Garrett, and, yes, Will Shakespeare." Of her dreams of years gone by, the Ann Arbor Daily News emphasizes the words of her last days, "My heart is warm with memories of my friends across the sea," and remarks: "Thus she went into the Beyond with a heart warm with affection for this country. In her hour of death, America's heart, therefore, is heavy."

"Dame Terry was not alone a great actress. Her brilliant intellect would have permitted her to shine in literature or any of the arts," states the Tulsa Daily World, while the Buffalo Evening News feels that "the woman whom even Sarah Bernhardt called the greatest actress in the world was placed upon a pinnacle which no commendation by any lesser judges could raise higher." The Savannah Press puts her "in a class alone," and the San Antonio Express offers the tribute: "Nature is chary of her most

Hope To Avoid All Scandal In G. O. P. Campaign

Seek To Avoid Repetition Of Sinclair Part In Campaign For Harding

THREE CARDINAL PRINCIPLES GIVEN

Confident Finance Chairman Nutt Of Cleveland Can Handle Big Task

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Three additional measures had been evolved today by Republican campaign chiefs to avoid a repetition of the Sinclair Liberty Bond transactions of the Harding campaign which brought Ex-National Chairman William H. Hays before the senate investigating committee for examination.

These proposals, together with the previously announced intention of making periodical public statements of campaign contributions, are called the cardinal principles of the finance policy of the national committee. They are:

1. No deficit shall be permitted even if necessary to restrict campaign activities.

2. No solicitors collecting money on a commission basis will be employed.

3. Large contributions from individuals will be avoided to a large degree.

The general scheme of raising and expending about $4,000,000 for the campaign emanated from conferences which included National Chairman Hubert Work, Treasurer J. R. Nutt; Secretary Franklin Fort and Eastern Treasurer Jeremiah Milbank.

Will Be No Deficit.

"There will be no deficit," Nutt declared flatly. "If we haven't got the money the expenses will have to be held down. There will be no paid solicitors; we will depend entirely upon volunteer workers.

"While we have set no limit on contributions we shall use discretion and we will make a great effort to obtain one and five dollar subscriptions to our campaign fund."

Treasurer Nutt indicated a belief that $100,000 individual subscriptions, not uncommon in the past, should be avoided.

The quiet Cleveland banker, whom some Republican chieftains say will make a national reputation in the handling of party finances, has shown a determination to avoid anything that might bring scandal charges. He is deeply interested, it is known, in securing hundreds of thousands of contributors, believing that every party man should show his concern in national politics by a small donation.

While continued conferences on finances were occupying most of the time of Republican leads, the announcement of the formation of a colored voters' division of the national committee aroused wide-spread comment here.

This division, which will be headed by John R. Hawkins, of Washington, D. C., will have offices in the same building as National Chairman Work. The organization, it was made plain, would operate on terms of equality with all other party workers, though specializing in colored votes.

In olden times there were creatures with mortal heads and the body of a horse, but they didn't diet in an effort to mend matters.

valuable gifts; it will be long before she raises up another such actress."

"Here in America we regarded Ellen Terry almost as one of our own," avers the Fort Wayne News-Sentinel, with the conclusion as to the praise by Bernhardt: "To have won such praise was a mighty achievement, for her day was a day of the greatest players the world has ever produced." The Dayton Daily News observes that "her preeminence in the poetic, romantic and classic drama has not been questioned even by such a carping critic as George Bernard Shaw," and that paper, appraising her success as one "largely of personality," adds that "like Maude Adams, in her most successful parts, she was simply her glorified self."

"The idol of two continents," is declared by the Houston Chronicle to have "had few equals as an actress and no rivals as a personality." That paper also recalls her as "an intellectual artist" who "studied her roles thoroughly." The Roanoke World News contends that "she gave a whole generation of theatergoers a new conception of the dramatic power of Shakespeare," and the Syracuse Herald notes that "for a full half-century she pursued her life work as a Shakespearean educator and a refined public entertainer." Of her quarter-century with Irving, the St. Louis Times says it was a period "in which the theatrical world witnessed the most superb acting in the history of the theater."

Her charm is viewed by the Springfield Union as a quality "which defies all the revolutionary changes in the theater that took place during her long life in it." The Pasadena Star-News states that "she kept her mind and soul young to the last," and that her work with Irving "was acclaimed in this country, as it was in Europe, as being masterly." The Kansas City Times declares: "She expressed the zest of life in joyous moods as few actresses have." The Times also recalls that "she made the acquaintance, and in many instances won the friendship, of such persons as Gladstone, Disraeli, Tennyson, Huxley, Spencer, Thomas and Jane Carlyle, George Eliot, the Brownings, Swinburne, Joachim, Laura Seymour, Thackeray, Dickens, Leigh Hunt, Darwin and Meredith."

"All who have commented upon her life," according to the Youngstown Vindicator, "speak of her beauty, the charm of her personality, and the infectious gaiety of her spirit. It is not too much to say that she was the most beloved actress of her generation. It is the privilege of persons so gifted to throw open to others larger and nobler and happier views of life."

"She had vitality that time could not kill and a personality that years could not dim," says the Richmond News Leader. "Some of the great names and many of the great days of the late Victorian age were bound up with hers. • • • With Henry Irving, her professional association extended from 1878 to the time of Irving's death in 1905. It was the most fruitful theatrical partnership of the 19th century."

"Terry was more than mere actress," concludes the Birmingham News, "in that her work was a tremendous socializing force in the English-speaking world's life—an unconscious pleader, if not for the new woman, yet for woman's capability to take her place rightfully in the world's life, and by so doing to make that work a finer and far more worth-while thing than it had been known to be."

Suffering Tells On Nobile; Makes Public Appearance

Warm And Cordial Welcome Given Leader Of Ill-Fated Dirigible Crash

(International News Service)

ROME, Aug. 2.—Gen Umberto Nobile, leader of the ill fated Polar expedition in the dirigible Italia, showed grim traces of his sufferings and hardships when he appeared in public Wednesday. He had lost much weight, his face was drawn and he walked slowly with bent shoulders.

Gen Nobile and his companions refused to make any statement until their formal report is in the hands of Premier Mussolini.

The warm and cordial welcome given the explorers here more than made up for the coldness of the greeting they got in Scandanavia.

GARDNER

Mrs. Philip Moore of Gardner has been suffering for some time with heart trouble but is improving and hoping for complete recovery. Miss Dorothy Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Moore of New Castle, is staying this week with her Gardner friends. Mr. and Mrs. Zeigler and son Howard of the Butler road spent last Sunday at the Moore home.

Miss Ruth King of Shenango stop had a delightful two weeks' vacation spent at Niagara Falls, Buffalo and points of interest in Canada.

Mrs. John Agnew of New Wilmington came to the home of her brother, Frank M. Hay, last week and took Virginia and Dorothy Hay home with her and their parents brought them home last Sunday.

Velma Houk of East New Castle is staying this week at the Comstock home at Gardner.

Mrs. W. Hedrick of Wilkinsburg was a guest for several days at the homes of her two brothers, John Sherger and Frank Sherger of Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Miller of the New Castle-Ellwood highway and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harper of Woodlawn had a fine trip, going by automobile to Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Toronto and many other places of interest. The excellent roads, the pleasant weather and varied and majestic scenery all made this a charming vacation.

E. O. Alexander of Pittsburgh spent a day with his folks at Gardner recently.

Kenneth Robb and his sister Miss Maude of Butler and Miss Marjorie Davidson of Evans City and Earl Holcomb of Akron called at the Robb home at Gardner last Sunday.

Several of the children at Gardner are suffering with the mumps.

There was a very heavy rainfall in Gardner on Tuesday night.

The members of the East New Castle mission held a picnic last Friday at Hill's beach.

Former Residents Visiting In City

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson Of Axis, Alabama, At Dr. Campbell's Home

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, of Axis, Alabama, but formerly of this city, are visiting at the home of Dr. W. L. Campbell on Moody avenue at the present time.

Mr. Anderson and his wife, the former Miss Lillie Leslie of Walnut street, are well known throughout the city by many. Before making his trip to the south 27 years ago, Mr. Anderson operated the spoke and handle factory which was in existence here at that time. He also helped to log the woods in that section of New Castle where the Benjamin Franklin Junior High school now stands.

One of Mr. Anderson's emphatic assertions is that the state of Alabama—his own state—will go strongly Republican in the presidential election this year, something that has not happened before.

MRS. BOBOLINK FLIES INTO A BALLOON

"I know who Whip-Poor-Will is," remarked Sonny-Bunny, suddenly. "But I am afraid of him. Every time I hear his cry I run as fast as I can toward home. And I shiver all the way."

"I am glad something makes you realize when it is time to go to bed, my son," said Mrs. Gray Rabbit, severely. "But I don't want you to grow up fearing Whip-Poor-Will. That bird really is a fine chap if he is a bit sad. Who wouldn't be sad roaming about in the dark all alone the way he does? When you are as old as your mother, Sonny, you will learn that you can's always tell a friend by the sound of his voice. Often the softest voice belongs to an enemy, my dear."

"I never used to feel sorry for spiders but I do now, sort of," remarked Mrs. Bobolink at this point, and seemingly without a bit of reason. Anyhow Sonny-Bunny couldn't see the point.

"Who's talking about spiders?" muttered he. Mother Gray Rabbit shook her head at him and Mrs. Bobolink continued.

"Nothing makes me madder than to be flying along and to have a sticky web float into my eyes. Ugh! It tickles and, besides, I can't see where I am going.

"Yet that is just what happened only a short time after we had left Lyre-Tail and Nightjar. Bob tried to brush the web off with his wing and stuck a feather into my eye, and I was so cross that I felt like gobbling up little Gossamer Spider, only the poor thing begged my pardon so humbly that I didn't quite have the heart."

"And really the spider wasn't to blame," interrupted Bob. "How could she be, when she never knew when a cool wave was going to strike her web and make it fall to earth and upon anything that happened to be in the way."

"What made the web go up in the first place?" asked the boy. "I have had one of the filmy things light on my nose more than once."

"That is exactly what I asked Gossamer Spider," cried Bob, "and she said that wasn't her fault, either—that no matter how hard she tried to keep her place upon a spot while she was spinning, just as sure as a warm breeze came along it would make the moisture in the web evaporate and then the web would be so light that the breeze could take it anywhere it wanted to, and poor little Gossamer, hanging onto the other end of it, would be jerked right off her feet.

"That is how Gossamer happened to drop on my back while her web blew into wifie's eye."

KEYSTONE GIRL SCOUTS MEET

The Keystone Girl Scouts held their weekly meeting Monday evening, July 30. Before the meeting the girls hiked to Glendale Springs and cooked supper over an open camp fire. Cleo Boughton passed her fire-building Afterwards an outdoor meeting was held. Many questions concerning camp were discussed and appointments made for the physical examination given by Dr. Dickey. Every Girl Scout must be examined and have the doctor's signature on blanks which are furnished for that purpose. Jean Hicks and Sally Lou Byers received Scout pins and an attendance star was awarded one girl. The Scout ring, which is to be given the best all-round Scout during the past year was awarded to Sally Byers. After the meeting several games were enjoyed and some songs sung. As this was the last meeting before camp, it was a long and busy one. There will be no more meetings until further notice; probably not before school starts.

Chicago Chatter

BY IONE QUINBY

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—Gossip from the big town's main street: Jacques Gordon, who recently paid Wurlitzers $35,000 for a Stradivarius violin made in 1732, now owns the most expensive violin in Chicago. There's a rumor 'round town that the silhouette on the service plates used in the Stevens hotel dining room is that of the wife of one of the owners. The blue "ogre's eye" one sees high above the boulevard near Delaware place is only the front door lantern of George Knutson's bachelor bungalow built on top of his apartment building.

* * *

Mayor Thompson's collegiate raccoon coat, which is said to be the most expensive in town, as well as the largest size, is in a special storage vault for the summer. The only "coach and four" in actual use here is the one owned by Otto W. Lehmann, who uses it to take his friends to the current horse shows. Undertakers in Chicago are complaining there aren't enough funerals to keep them out of debt. Gilda Gray's latest hobby is collecting beads. She has a bead jacket which is a riot of brilliant colors, and which attracts as much attention as the $60,000 worth of diamonds which were stolen from her in a hotel lobby several years ago.

* * *

Astor street is never deserted. The moment dusk comes Pinkerton watchmen patrol the street, turning their flashlights onto front doors and side and back entrances of the homes, which contain millions of dollars worth of paintings, silver and gold services, rare rugs and laces. This is one of the richest streets in Chicago, but it has never been robbed. Besides the watchmen there are hidden burglar alarms that would bring dozens of police to the vicinity within a few seconds. Some of the residents within a short radius are the Robert R. McCormicks, John Bordens, Augustus Eddys, Bruce Borlands, Charles Dennehys and Mrs. Jacob Baur. Cardinal Mundelein also lives on this street, and Mrs. Rockefeller McCormick lives just around the corner on Lake Shore drive.

* * *

Col. George Fabyan, Chicago and Geneva millionaire, who several years ago caused a big "to do" by trying to prove that Bacon wrote the plays for which Shakespeare got credit, spends his money now trying to find a way to make Chicago noiseless. On his estate, Riverbank, on the Fox river, he has built huge acoustic laboratories, where he supports inventors, scientists and experimenters while they work out a scheme, which if successful, should make the big town a veritable Utopia in which to think and work.

He says there's too much racket in Chicago. He doesn't like noise, and he has sympathy with the stenographers, machine shop workers and clerks who labor in a racket all day and leave at night with a headache. Chicago is said to be the noisiest town on either side of the Atlantic.

In addition to owning the largest private zoo of terra-cotta, stuffed and live animals in the country, Col. Fabyan has the largest spiderweb in the world. It's the size, almost, of the merry-go-round of the 183 Chicago World's Fair, and visitors to Riverbank amuse themselves by climbing around the web as if they were spiders. It is a large contraption of rope and cable.

Her Health Came Back Soon After She Got Konjola

New Medicine Ended Years Of Kidney and Liver Troubles; States This Lady

MRS. LAURA L. FULTON
Seavy Photo

Many of the well known residents of New Castle and vicinity are telling how this remarkable medicine, Konjola, is delivering them from their health troubles. The Konjola Man, who is at the Love and Megown drug store, 204 East Washington St., this city, is explaining this compound to over a hundred people throughout each day, and at the same time, many already benefited are giving their indorsement of this medicine.

One of the latest statements came from Mrs. Laura L. Fulton, 110½ North Liberty St., this city.

"This is the first time in my life to ever praise a medicine to the public", said Mrs. Fulton, "and I want to indorse Konjola because it completely restored my health after everything else failed.

"I was suffering every day with kidney trouble. Nothing that I ever took or did for that ailment, would do me the least bit good. As the days passed my condition grew all the worse. My lower limbs would swell up to almost twice their size and sometimes I could hardly get around the house. There seemed to be a constant pain across the small of my back. At night I would have to rise several times and this broke up my rest so that I was always tired and worn-out. Because of sluggish liver, my entire body was broken out with a rash. This caused me so much suffering that I often thought I would go wild. All during the day I had splitting headaches that felt as if a thousand needles were sticking in my head. I always felt tired and draggy—just like I was only half-living.

"In this condition I went to the Konjola Man and found out about this medicine. I was merely told that it had helped others in my condition and that it most likely would help me. I have only taken two bottles but I feel as if I never had a sick day in my life. Konjola regulated and strengthened my kidneys so that my limbs never swell. The awful pains in my back have never returned since I started taking this medicine and I enjoy sound and all night sleep. My liver is functioning the way it should and the rash has cleared up, in fact, my complexion is better now than it has been for a long time. The medicine has helped me so much to gain new and glorious health and that is my reason for indorsing it".

The Konjola Man is at the Love and Megown drug store, 204 East Washington St. New Castle, where he is daily meeting the public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy.

Women are Learning the Right Way

Pimples on the face and other parts of the body are warnings from within. Sometimes they foretell eczema, boils and other skin disorders that burn like flames of fire.

IF you are unfortunate in having skin blemishes, pimples, boils, eczema, you owe it to yourself and friends to remove the cause. Nature will then provide the complexion which is so much desired.

Thousands have been enabled to free themselves of unsightly blemishes and painful skin annoyances by taking a course of S.S.S.

You owe it to yourself to try S.S.S. It helps Nature build up red corpuscles. It improves the processes by which the blood is nourished.

Red blood cells are Nature's way for building and sustaining the body.

Without plenty of rich, red blood, there can be no strong, sturdy, powerful men, or beautiful healthy women.

You know a clear skin comes from within. Correct the cause—through the blood—and pimples, boils, eczema and that sallow complexion will disappear.

S.S.S. is Nature's own tonic for restoring the appetite—building strength—and clearing the body of so-called skin troubles.

"I was troubled with pimples and blackheads. I took a course of S.S.S. It cleared my face and back. I think S.S.S. is wonderful. I have told many friends about S.S.S., and they are getting as much benefit as I did." Miss Ruth Gahm, 1134 Elden Ave., Los Angeles, Calif.

Fourth Mahoning School Reunion Held Wednesday

Sixty-Five Are Present At Reunion Supper At Cascade Park

Wednesday afternoon the Mahoning school was the scene of a gathering of men and women, persons who were pupils at the old brick Mahoning school and graduated from the school prior to 1903. The reunion began at one o'clock and the afternoon was spent at the school, the greater part of the time being devoted to getting reacquainted with persons they had known as children while attending grade school.

A short business meeting was conducted later in the afternoon. At this time a motion was passed to the effect that the reunion is to be an event of the first Wednesday of August each year. Officers in charge this year were re-elected. Officers are: president, J. H. Gwin; vice president, R. V. Wettich; secretary, W. W. McGaughey.

Toward evening all persons attending the reunion went to Cascade Park, where they had a picnic dinner at the picnic grove about six o'clock. Covers were laid for 65, which included persons eligible to attend the reunion and families. Following the dinner the evening was spent at the park.

One teacher who had taught at Mahoning school prior to 1900 was present. This was Mrs. Mary Simpson, who taught first grade pupils at Mahoning school for a number of years.

Among the out-of-town guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Alvie Klindrienst of Ellwood City, Mrs. Mazie Hammond Walker and daughter Margaret of Ashtabula, O.; Mrs. Ella Boyd of Orangeville, O.; Mrs. Mary Simpson of West Virginia, Mrs. Winifred Junk of Greenville, Pa.; Mrs. Sally Mallory of Greenville, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Thomas of Ellwood City and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McGaughey of Akron, O.

General committee in charge of the arrangements for the fourth reuuion of the group was comprised of J. H. Gwin, C. B. Grassel, J. L. Thoman, Mrs. Q. E. Davy, Mrs. C. L. Martin, Mrs. R. C. Cather, Mrs. M. C. Adams.

GARDEN PARTY

Several hundred people were in attendance at the garden party or lawn social held Wednesday evening on the lawn of St. Margaret's church. The lawn was illuminated with electric lights for the occasion and tables were attractively decorated in a color scheme of pink and white with bouquets of spring flowers. Bingo was played by many and proved an interesting pastime.

The social had been given by the ladies of the church.

Elite Bootlegger In Philadelphia To Be Arraigned Today

Identity Of Many Prominent Social Persons May Be Revealed By Bootlegger

(Interrational News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 2—The identity of many socially prominent persons in this city and other large eastern cities may be revealed today when Joel D. Kerper, alleged head of a "society bootleggery," is arraigned before a U. S. commissioner on charges of illegal possession and sale of liquor. Colonel Samuel O. Wynne has announced his intention of summoning many persons whose names were found on a card index file by Kerper and his helpers. The list comprised 1,000 names of persons prominent in Philadelphia, New York, Washington, Baltimore, Bar Harbor and other social centers.

Arraigned with Kerper will be his two helpers, John Brill of Camden and Tony De Mayo of this city.

Pile Sufferers

Can You Answer These Questions?

Do you know why ointments do not give you quick and lasting relief?

Why cutting does not remove the cause?

Do you know the cause of piles is internal? That there is a stagnation of blood in the lower bowel?

Do you know that there is an internal remedy discovered by Dr. Leonhardt and known as HEM-ROID, sold by McKee's Kut Rate Store, Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc. and all druggists with guarantee of money back if it fails?

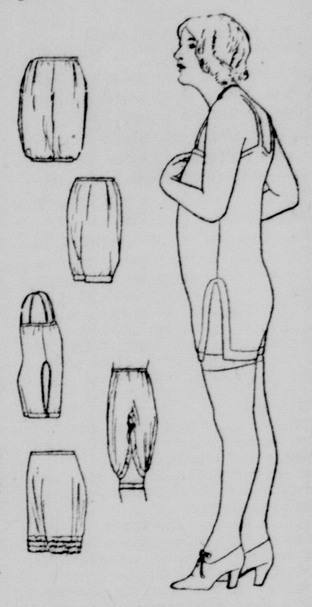

HEM-ROID banishes piles by removing the cause—stagnation of blood in the lower bowel. This simple home treatment has an almost unbelievable record for sure, safe and lasting relief to thousands of pile sick sufferers, and saves the needless pain and expense of an operation.

No Word Here Yet On Pay Increase

Officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad company at the divisional offices in this city have received no official notification of the reported increases in the pay of some 22,000 employes of the company, ranging from one cent an hour to $17 per month, which was said to be granted through the action of a joint conference committee of railroad representatives and representatives of the maintenance of way department of the railroad in a session at Harrisburg Wednesday.

It is said that the increase is effective July 16 and will directly affect the company's machinists, tinsmiths, welders, carpenters, trackmen, blacksmiths, pumpers and cooks.

It is known that the representatives of the maintenance department first asked for an increase in wages last fall, and it is thought possible that the increase could have been granted at yesterday's meeting. However, local authorities stated they could neither verify nor deny the action as no word concerning it had been received this morning.

Sheriff Notifies Many Defendants

Sheriff H. M. Reynolds has been kept very busy in the past few days serving summons on the numerous defendants in the suit of C. Lee Horner, former county treasurer, against the various tax collectors of the county and their bondsmen for the purpose of recovering that portion of the delinquent taxes paid the collectors in 1920-1921, which the county through action of the court collected from C. Lee Horner and which he is now endeavoring to recover for his own use.

Sheriff Finds Two Abandoned Autos

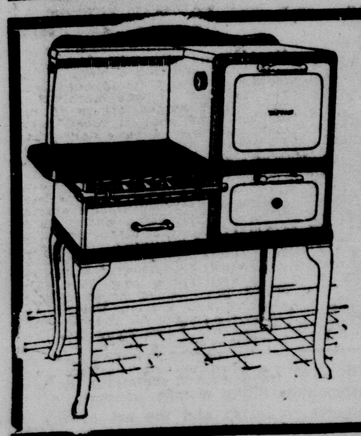

Sheriff H. M. Reynolds while in the Moravia road district this morning, found two cars at the side of the road, which apparently have been abandoned by persons, who stole them. A card in one of them showed that it belonged to W. H. Payne of 309½ Walnut street. It is a truck and the owner has been notified. It had no license plates on it.

There was also a Chevrolet coupe standing nearby, which had every appearance of having been stolen. It had its license plates on it.

$26 EXTRA PROFIT
From Each Acre of Winter Wheat

STRIKING proof of greater net profits obtained by using "AA QUALITY" Fertilizers is furnished by Mr. Charles G. Pfinninger, of Chili, Monroe County, N. Y. His yield last season was 51 bushels per acre. Mr. Pfinninger says: "I find that 'AA QUALITY' Fertilizer increased my crop about 20 bushels to the acre."

Mr. Pfinninger sold his wheat for $1.30 a bushel; so that "AA QUALITY" goods paid him an extra profit of $26 per acre. Read his letter in the next column.

Exceptional? Not at all. Hundreds of other farmers have written similar letters. They all tell of bigger yields, better quality—and increased profits—with "AA QUALITY" Fertilizers. These splendid crops are not due to luck or accident. They are the result of sound farming methods and the use of the best fertilizer obtainable—that is, "AA QUALITY".

Your crop, your profits, these are the only real standards by which to measure fertilizer quality. Chemical analysis may fool the farmer but it cannot fool your crops. Don't be deluded into thinking that all goods of the same chemical analysis are the same in crop-producing value.

Buy fertilizer with your eyes open. Compare crop records obtained with "AA QUALITY" Fertiiizers with those of any other make. Then make your decision. Larger yields, better quality—and increased profits—make "AA QUALITY" goods by all odds the cheapest you can buy.

You owe it to yourself to use "AA QUALITY" Fertilizers on at least part of your next wheat crop. You, too, can increase your profits. See the nearest "AA QUALITY" dealer to-day.

Facts for Wheat Growers

From Mr. Charles G. Pfinninger, Chili, Monroe Co., N. Y.

"I seeded my wheat field of 9 acres about September 20, 1926, using two bushels of seed per acre. I used 200 lbs. of your 'AA QUALITY' Fertilizer per acre. Threshed this field June 25th, 1927; the 9 acres yielded 461 bu.—average of 51 bu. per acre of very fine-quality wheat. I find that 'AA QUALITY' Fertilizer increased my crop about 20 bushels to the acre." July 25, 1927

From N. M. Dinger, Oliveburg, Jefferson Co., N. Y.

"I used between 175 and 200 lbs. of 'AA QUALITY' Fertilizer per acre on my wheat and my yield was 32 bushels per acre, an increase of 5 to 10 bushels to the acre. This was grown on a field which, when I started farming about seven years ago, was in poor shape."—September 8, 1927.

Avoirdupois Is Stern Foe For Film Actresses

By JAMES F. TAGGERT
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, —Aug. 2.—"I felt just like Marie Antoinette being dragged to the guillotine."

The quotation introduces a new style of Hollywood "True Confessions"—that of the movie maid trying to "make weight" to hold her job.

The guillotine was the scales.

The quotation is one ascribed to Molly O'Day by a witness to this young woman's struggles to reduce to 120 pounds reported demanded in order to carry on as a heroine on First National Pictures payroll.

The writer sought Molly O'Day to get from her own lips the story of her tragic avoirdupois, but found that she had left Hollywood for Hot Springs, Ark.

Miss O'Day, being away, another young damsel in distress with her poundage was sought out.

She was Eva Von Berne, very recently imported from Vienna by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

14 Pounds Too Much

Fraulein Von Berne arrived in New York recently weighing, according to her own word, 134 pounds!

Fourteen pounds overweight threatened to slow her in reaching screen seventh heaven. For 120 pounds is now the maximum standard weight for movie queens.

Eva was found at luncheon. The Austrian beauty was nibbling at lettuce leaves and toasted dry bread without butter.

"Yes, I am an amazon," she confessed in sign language, reinforced by three words of English and her French vocabulary.

"In Vienna I boxed, fenced, played tennis, rode horseback, skated. I was like your Jack Dempsey (and here she grasped her biceps)."

But Fraulein Von Berne treated the inquirer to a smile of pure gold as she informed him she was getting down to 120.

Made Her Unhappy

Molly didn't take her orders to reduce so happily, I am informed. In fact, while academically appreciating the general objective sought in slenderization, she started another rebellion in Ireland when she was requested to get upon the scales.

The First National bosses today confessed they got Molly as far as the scales, but not upon them. So, no one could tell whether she was around as devoutly to be wished 120, or perhaps abhorred 140.

In this situation, Al Rockett, general manager at First National studios, resorted to strategim by inducing Miss O'Day to don a costume which she had worn in a picture just before it became a matter of comment on the lot that the actress was taking on weight.

The dress could not be blended.

That the movies are not all they are all steamed up to be is evident from the fate of another Austrian who came to Hollywood early last year and went back home when she seemed unable to make weight.

She is Joan Lido, and was imported by the Laemmles to add lustre to the galaxy of talent and fair women at Universal studios.

However, Fraulein Lido, with a contract in her trunk arrived full of histrionic promise, but weighing around 135. So she was packed off to Arrowhead Hot Springs last March and there placed in the care of a doctor.

But, through no fault of the physician, Miss Lido took on about five additional pounds and sealed her doom.

Broadway Hostesses---and Their Nemesis

Somehow Helen Morgan (left) and Texas Guinan, rival night club hostesses, always managed to get the better of any argument with a mere male over the prohibition question. But when a woman took the trail it was a different story. Mrs. Mabel W. Willebrandt (center), assistant attorney-general in charge of dry violation cases, promptly caused these two shining lights of the Gay White Way to be indicted and announced she will press their prosecution.

Writes Problem Book

Mrs. Mabel Higgins Mattingly.

"The Unmarried Mother and Her Child" is the title of a book written by Mrs. Mabel Higgins Mattingly, Cleveland, in which she has made a study of 53 actual cases gathered from social agencies. It is her conclusion that the child should stay with the mother, and that "in few cases did there appear to be a stigma attached to the unmarried mother who makes a real effort to adjust herself in her community."

SAVES AUTOISTS AT CROSSING, IS KILLED BY TRAIN

Toledo Watchman Saw He Couldn't Return To Tower In Time

TOLEDO, O., Aug. 2. — Trying to save the lives of motorists at a railroad crossing here Wednesday, Theodore Martin, 65, watchman for the New York Central, was struck by a passenger train and instantly killed. He was thrown 60 feet.

Martin, who had been tender at the crossing for three years, descended from his tower to gather gravel for a refuse box when he say the flyer, speeding to make up lost time. He knew he had no chance to return to his post to lower the gates.

Apparently Martin was more concerned about saving the lives of approaching motorists than in protecting his own life. He waved his arms to stop traffic but stood too close to the track and was struck by the train.

FIRE RIVALRY IS CONDEMNED

Volunteer Companies At Scottdale Must Drop Faction, Says Judge

GREENSBURG, Pa., Aug. 2.—Judge Charles D. Copeland in handing down a rule Wednesday, pointed out that volunteer fire companies existing in a municipality should work together harmoniously and should not permit factional rivalry to creep in. The opinion was in the case of the commonwealth against W. H. Shallenberger, a member of the Scottdale volunteer fire department, discharging a rule previously granted to show cause why the verdict of the jury placing the costs upon Shallenberger should not be set aside.

Shallenberger had been tried at the May term on a charge of assault and battery, growing out of an alleged attack upon Robert Bartell, a member of the community fire company, with which the volunteer fire company of Scottdale was at loggerheads.

During a fire last spring it was charged that Bartell sat on a fire plug and refused to permit the volunteer hose company members to use the plug. In the ensuing fight, Shallenberger struck Bartell. During the squabble, the building almost burned down.

FORMER FAMOUS CIRCUS PERFORMER DIES IN POVERTY

First Woman Bare Back Rider, Famous 50 Years Ago, Buried Today

BUFFALO, Aug. 2—Funeral services were held at Batavia for Rosalie de la Mar de pre Witcher, 87, who was famous fifty years ago as she was the first bare back rider in the country. She was found dead in the ramshackle house in which she lived and the coroner's report showed that she had died of hunger and exposure though she had some $15,000 in a safe deposit box, the key of which was found in her house.

She was known as Rosalie de Pre in her days with Barnum, "the greatest woman rider on earth." She was born near Montreal and when she became lost at a circus one time, a circus performer took her to New York. Her career started driving a team of white ponies in the parade at the age of six. She was later the starring attraction of the entire Barnum show.

On the morning of the day President Lincoln was shot she married Charlie Witcher, a lion tamer. They retired with a fortune but it was soon spent. When her husband died a few years after their marriage, Rosalie went to live alone with her parrot. She told fortunes since that time.

Kenneth Fry, Jr., Funeral Service

Son Of Well Known Referee Is Buried At Rochester On Wednesday

Funeral services of Kenneth Fry, Jr., were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the family residence, 300 Adams street, Rochester, Pa. The services were very largely attended. Interment was made in the Beaver Cemetery. Miss May Martin of this city was present at the service.

More than ordinary interest will be taken locally, when it is understood that the little boy, who was seven years of age, was a son of G. K., better known as Ted Fry, famous football player in his day and in recent years, well known football official, who has often officiated here. The father is connected with the H. C. Fry Glass company.

The little fellow came to his death in a rather unusual manner. He had climbed up a pear tree, where he is said to have attempted to ignite a match or matches. One of these matches is believed to have ignited his shirt. He assisted in putting out the blaze and crawled down the tree himself. The shock sustained from the burns was such as to cause his death.

Canal Disaster In Ontario Takes Toll Of Eight Workmen

Welland Canal Crash Takes Lives Of Eight Men; Seventeen Injured Seriously

(International News Service)

THOROLD, Ont., Aug. 2—The death list in the Welland Canal disaster here stood at eight today. They were crushed to death when a massive steel gate swinging in place over lock number six, tore itself loose from an electric crane and fell to the bed of the canal where forty men were working.

Seventeen injured men, several of whom may die, were taken to a hospital in the nearby town of St. Catharines. The dead: W. Galaskezich and Samuel McMullan, of Thorold; L. Boccolletti, of Borough, Ont.; and W. C. Overhold, James McArthur, Joseph McArthur, Harold Smalko and Joseph Carrio, all of St. Catherines.

Goodyear Company Sees Good Business

Returns From Trip Abroad; New Zeppelin To Cross Atlantic For Akron

AKRON, O., Aug. 2.—Returning from an extensive business trip in Europe, Paul Litchfield, president of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., brought an optimistic report of business conditions abroad and particularly those that affect American manufacturers.

He states, "I found the registration of automobiles in Europe increasing very rapidly. Our English plant at Wolverhampton opened last December wth a capacity of 2000 tires a day. It is now producing more than that."

Litchfield says that business in England is steady and is about the same as it was a year ago.

While in Germany, he visited the Zeppelin plant at Frederichshafen. A new Zeppelin half again as large as the Los Angeles will be flown across the Atlantic and will visit Akron soon, according to Litchfield.

U. S. DIPLOMAT REAL LINQUIST

John D. Prince At Belgrade Can Speak Large Number Of Languages

By WILLIAM IVY

PARIS, Aug. 2.—A reproach cast at American diplomats for generations is that they rarely know any foreign languages. Whereas every German diplomat speaks French—and usually English as well—and every British diplomat knows two or three foreign tongues.

But there is at least one member of the American diplomatic corps who redeems the deficiencies of his colleagues, and that is Minister John D Prince, now stationed at Belgrade.

Nobody knows exactly how many languages Mr. Prince speaks. Perhaps he himself might forget to mention a few of them if you asked him. He has not only a real gift for picking up new ones, but a passion for studying them.

A few years ago he was in Denmark, as minister at Copenhagen, and he spoke Danish so perfectly that few were willing to believe it was not his native tongue. At the same time he seized the opportunity to learn Swedish and Norwegian. The Norwegian language is almost identical with Danish in vocabulary, but there are little tricky differences in syntax and very great differences in pronunciation and intonation. Mr. Prince took pride in mastering all the finesses of both tongues.

When he was transferred from Copenhagen to Belgrade his first move was to employ an instructor in the language—or rather languages—of Yugoslavia. And in a few weeks, when the time came to take up his new duties, he astonished everybody by making a public speech in Slovenian!

Mr. Prince is always a great rooter for the country in which he is stationed. He preached the beauties of Denmark for many years, and now he will tell you that Yugoslavia is the one place in the world, whether you are merely on a vacation or want to settle down for life.

MARION PASTOR DROWNS IN BAY

Sinks After Clinging For Hours To Overturned Boat In Lake

SANDUSKY, O., Aug. 2. — Rev. Frank P. George, pastor of the First United Brethern Church, Marion, O., was drowned in Sandusky Bay near Bay Bridge, six miles northwest of here, early yesterday.

With Rev. E. J. Haldeman, pastor of the First Unitarian church, Toledo, and George R. Repp a church man and chairmaster of Green Springs, he had clung to an upturned boat through the night. About an hour before rescuers arrived he became exhausted, released his hold and sank.

The body had not been recovered last evening.

Tuesday night about 6 the three put out in a rowboat, equipped with an outboard motor. The boat capsized.

After dark, Lewis P. White, owner of White's Landing, a Sandusky Bay summer resort where the men were vacationing, called volunteers and began a search.

At daylight the two survivors were sighted near Bay Bridge.

CONFESSES HE SHOT WIFE AND CHILDREN

New Jersey Dentist Declares He Killed Them To Prevent Suffering

Surrenders To Police And Cooly Tells Of His Triple Crime

(International News Service)

ELIZABETH, N. J., Aug. 2. — "I was deeply in debt and loved my wife and children so much that I didn't want to see them suffer."

Calmly puffing a cigar and speaking in a detached, unemotional manner, Dr. Arthur F. Woolsey, 37, prominent Elizabeth dentist, thus confessed that he murdered his wife and two children yesterday, according to police. After summoning police to his home, he was charged with murder and held without bail for the grand jury.

In his alleged confession, Dr. Woolsey said that he owed a $9,000 mortgage on his house and that he owes $3,000 in various other debts. He felt he was "going on the rocks," he said and decided that the best way to save his wife and children was to kill them. He planned this a few months ago, he said.

Dr. Woolsey said he fired three shots at his wife, one entering her head and the other two her breast, shot his son, Arthur, seven years old, and then killed his daughter, Mary, three years old, according to police.

The wife, Marguerite Woolsey, was thirty-two-years old. After he had shot his wife and children, Dr. Woolsey told police, he went to the kitchen and prepared his breakfast. Then, he said, he washed the bodies, laid them out in their beds, and called the police.

Detectives declared that the dentist apparently was in his right mind, and appeared to be fully cognisant of the punishment he faces for the slaying.

"I have never had any trouble with my wife," his confession read, "and she has always been true to me. The only reason why I took her life was to relieve her of any embarrassment by reason of my financial difficulties."

Present Pageant At Scout Camp

Large Crowd At Camp To Witness "The Covered Wagon" Wednesday

Traffic was heavy over the roads last night to Camp John M. Phillips, Lawrence county Boy Scout Camp, to witness the pageant, "The Covered Wagon." The pageant was presented by the scouts before a large group of parents and townspeople.

The theme carried one back to the days of the Indian and the frontiersman. They battle and the white man is victorious and carries his banner of civilization onward. At the close of the pageant filled with action the soldiers chanted the Star Spangled Banner.

The pageant direction was in the capable hands of swimming director Nolte. Camp director Norton announces that the next pageant will be in the form of a water carnival. It will be held as soon as weather conditions permit.

During this last week of the third period the boys are earning merit badges in commendable number. Here is Wednesday list: Harvey Kleim, Bob Kennedy, Automobiling; Alfred Howe, Scholarship and Swimming; Bob Howe, Firemanship, Physical Development; Jack Marshall, Pioneering and Swimming; Herbert McLure, Swimming; Robert Morrison, Firemanship; Robert Montgomery, Firemanship; Tom Parlette, Physical Development; A. Stump, Athletics and Swimming; James Ullum, Automobiling, Conservation and Painting; Wheeler, Craftmanship in leather; Tedd Ropp, Conservation, and Physical Development; Jack Ball, Conservation and Physical Development, Junior Barnes, Swimming; Robert Brown, Swimming.

The higher scalps were awarded as follows, Grand Sachem to Bob Howe, Hunter to J. Stump, Brave to J. Wilson.

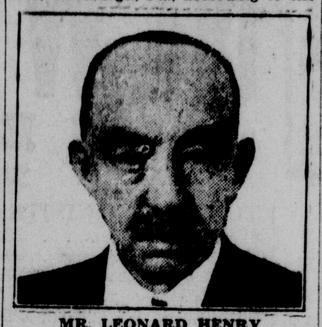

The honor banner was earned by Hut C. A. Martin of the Dan Boone stockade, with a total score of 99.

Tom Parlette has taken the place of Jack Stevenson, absent for a few days, and in his role of a stockade leader he has done very creditably.

MADE 82-YEAR-OLD MAN FEEL YEARS YOUNGER

Civil War Veteran Finds Ten Herbs Wonderful For Elderly Persons.

"I am 82 years old, and I think that when a medicine benefits a man of my age like Ten Herbs did, it must possess merit," was the statement of Mr. Leonard Henry, 720 Euclid Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa., according to the

MR. LEONARD HENRY

Ten Herbs Man, who is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, New Castle, where he is daily demonstrating this great herbal compound to crowds of men and women. Mr. Henry is a civil war veteran, and a member of the G. A. R. Post, 117. He has lived in Pittsburgh all his life, and was employed by the Pennsylvania railroad for 50 years.

"They say that after 'three score and ten' a person is living on borrowed time and needs something to take the place of youth's assistance," Mr. Henry continued. "I always had a fairly good appetite, but food did not digest properly. Gas would form and cause me to get very short of breath. My bowels were extremely irregular—some days like dysentery and other days badly constipated. My blood circulation was not what it should be, and my nerves were in such bad state that I slept poorly.

"I thought my condition was due to my age, but I can honestly say that since using Ten Herbs I feel years younger. Your medicine seemed to be just what my system needed. I enjoy my meals now and can digest my food. Gas does not form and I do not become short of breath. My bowels are regular. All my different organs seem to have been benefited. My blood circulation has been wonderfully improved, and I sleep better at night. I have recommended Ten Herbs to a number of friends and gladly give this statement for publication."

The Ten Herbs Man is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, New Castle, where he is daily meeting the public and explaining the merits of this medicine.

Report Girl Is Bitten By Dog

When she bumped into the dog of R. B. Moore of 18 West Reynolds street Wednesday evening, Lizzie Sam, aged 8, of Weinberg alley, was bitten on the stomach, according to the reports made to the New Castle police.

Officers Thomas and McMullen ordered the dog tied up until the outcome of the bite could be ascertained. The girl was taken to a doctor's office.

Firemen Called To Public Square

Sparks coming out of the chimney of the Bleakley block at 2 Eash Washington street caused the New Castle fire department to respond to an alarm at 9:25 Wednesday evening.

When the department arrived, they found a small flue fire which did no damage. No action was taken because it burned itself out. The cause, it is thought, is due to the janitor burning paper in the furnace.

Service Charge On Small Accounts By Sharon Banks

SHARON, Pa., Aug.—Officials and clerks in the banks of this city are busily engaged in checking accounts prior to the newly installed system of a monthly service charge for all accounts of less than $100. Savings accounts are not affected by this new policy.

According to bank officials, the new policy has not caused the banks to lose many accounts. Some few persons with the small amounts carried in the bank have withdrawn, but what the system had done is consolidate accounts. Where families have had three or four separate accounts, they have been made into one.

Musical Program Of Vocal And Instrumental Music To Be Feature Of Meeting

There will be a special service Friday evening at the Hoover Heights Tabernacle, Morris street and Moorehead avenue. Misses Cora Belle Young and Dorothy Keithley will be in charge. They will give instrumental selections, vocal selections and also a brief talk. All are welcome. The hour is 7:45.

The attendance at the Bible school continues to increase. New scholars may begin the course at any time. Sessions are each morning at nine o'clock.

The regular meeting of the official board will be held Saturday evening at 7:45.

There will be an open air meeting in front of the store on Sheep Hill Sunday afternoon at 4:15. The Misses Young and Keithley will play and sing.

Sunday evening there will be a baptismal service in the church. Any desiring to be immersed should see the pastor, Rev. Scripture, as soon as possible.

TROUT SEASON REAL FAILURE

Too Much Rain Causes Season To Be Disappointment To Anglers

HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 2.—Frequent rains and high water have made the past trout season which has just come to a close an absolute failure, as far as the angler is concerned.

H. R. Stackhouse, secretary of the board of fish commissioners, made the statement that the past season has been a total failure and that few anglers throughout the state had caught but a few fish.

He did state, however, that fishing was more of a success in northwestern Pennsylvania in the counties of Warren and Forest. A few catches were also made in Cumberland county and in Pike and Wayne.

Too much rain is just as bad for fish with regards to catching them as too little, stated the commissioner.

Five Injured In Auto Crash Near Wilmington, Ohio

(International News Service)

WILMINGTON, O., August 2.—Five persons were being treated for injuries today, three of them seriously hurt as the result of an accident near here when the car in which they were riding crashed into one driven by F. T. Bellis of Bradford, Pa.

Bellis and his wife who were the only occupants of their car, escaped uninjured although their car was completely wrecked.

The five occupants of the other machine which was operated by Lee Crone, were taken to a hospital where they were treated. Three of the five, hospital authorities say, may not recover.

Municipal Hall Bell Taken Down At Beaver Falls

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Aug. 2. — The historic old bell which has hung in the municipal building since its construction 50 years ago is being taken down. The city has sold the building since the completion of their new hall.

The old bell which has considerable sentiment clinging to it stalled the use of the siren for a fire call some years ago. The same sentiment prevailed when the plans for the new building were made. When the building was sold, the right to remove the bell was reserved.

The old bell was presented to the city by Jacob Henrici for the Economite Society. It bears the date of 1878. The bell measures forty inches in diameter and weighs slightly more than 1,150 pounds.

Experts Can't Vision Three Miles A Minute

By CHARLES P. STEWART.
Washington Correspondent for Central Press and New Castle News.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Three hundred and seventy-five miles an hour is faster than commerce department aviation experts are inclined to believe any plane can carry 30 passengers at a load—in aerial travels present stage of development anyway.

Director General Luigi Cape of the Savoia Hydroplane Co., a recent arrival in this country from Italy is quoted to the effect that his concern is building a 6,000 horsepower craft now which can do it.

The commerce department folk naturally are reluctant even to hint that so distinguished a visitor doesn't know what he is talking about.

Nevertheless if Signor Cape wants to bet that he will not be disappointed the department's aeronautics branch probably would not be a bad place for him to look for takers—maybe at pretty fair odds too.

* * *

"If it were a racing plane" suggested Donald E. Keyhoe of the departmental flying personnel, "375 miles would not be so hard on the imagination.

"The seaplane racing record is 318.624 miles already."

(It would have to be a sea, not a land plane, it seems because so swift a ship would need at least a mile, under the most favorable conditions and generally more to take off and light and no flying field on terra firma is big enough.)

"But 30 passengers" continued Keyhoe. "It would be mighty difficult to construct a plane on the right lines for speed to accomplish so many They couldn't very well be strung out in line, fore and aft.

"And her engines? Tandem, too?

"Think what a procession!

"Yet any other way—look at the air resistance!"

* * *

Aviator Keyhoe sees another difficulty.

Signor Cape proposes his plane for transatlantic flying.

"It is a long trip" says Keyhoe "for machinery to stand the wear and tear of 375-mile travel.

"It would be like driving a racing automobile at top speed without a stop, from New York to San Francisco. Something would be pretty apt to give out on the way. A short dash in record time is one thing .Keeping it up into the thousands of miles is another."

* * *

Besides isn't there any limit to the rate at which the human system can endure being shot through the atmosphere?

As to that, Aviator Keyhoe doesn't think so—provided the line of travel is straightway and the start and stop are reasonably gradual. The start is sure to be. A plane cannot take off at a speed greater than those on board can adapt themselves to. Everybody knows what happens when a landing is too abrupt.

In full flight at high speed, it is only when the aviator turns a corner that nature registers a protest.

As he banks for a curve at a 200 or 300-mile clip, to avoid skidding—swish!—goes nearly all the blood from the top to the lower part of the body, emptying it out of his head so completely that sometimes he loses consciousness momentarily.

* * *

The faster the plane is whizzing, the more pronounced this unpleasant effect.

Aviator Keyhoe surmises that it may be possible to reach a point where a lapse of this kind on the pilot's part would last long enough to spell disaster.

However they do not turn corners in long distance flying.

State To Prosecute For Adulteration

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Aug. 2.—Prosecutions for sale of so called "sweet butters' adulterated with excessive amounts of water and containing less than 80 per cent of butter fat recently have been necessary in several sections of the state, Dr. James W. Kellogg director of the bureau of foods and chemistry announced today.

Dr. Kellogg said that the practice of reworking western sweet butter for sale in Pennsylvania is illegal unless state standards for butter fat are followed.

Water Company Seeks Old Deposit

(International News Service)

BRADDOCK, Pa., Aug. 2.—A communication from the Pennsylvania Water company recently presented to council asked the return of $25 posted in 1899 according to borough laws of that time to assure proper replacement when a street was torn up to install water connections.

W. J. Tracey secretary of council, was selected to delve into the town's history in an effort to ascertain whether such an item is listed on the records. If it is council has promised to make good the refund.

What Late David Jameson Thought Of Motor Clubs

What motor clubs are, and how they united for the common good of every motorist, is explained in the following excerpt, taken from the writings of the late David Jameson, the founder of the New Castle Motor club and a past president of the American Automobile association.

Today this same bit of advice, made available by Bernard N. Hanlon, secretary-manager of the New Castle Motor club, hangs on the wall of the club so that every motorist who comes to New Castle and stops at the club may have a chance to read it.

Mr. Jameson's statement follows:

"A real man wants to do his share in the promotion of common good. Automobiles, of one type or another, have come to be almost the sole users of the highways. Within the short period of 20 years there has been a revolution in vehicular traffic. In the adjustment of this new vehicle and this new means of transportation to the social economy, motor clubs have been indispensable. Every man who owns a machine exhibits a disposition to do his share when he maintains a membership in his home club. Through the club, in cooperation with other motorists, he does for himself what he could not do single-handed. The non-member motorist is a slacker. He reaps where others sow.

"If the duties referred to do not appeal to his sense of fairness, when he comes to travel the motorist discovers another mighty important reason why he ought to belong to his home motor club. Local clubs handle local problems. Large clubs in different cities and towns unite to form state associations in the maintenance of a great national organization. In this way hundreds of clubs, all over the land, are brought into harmonious relationship. They combine to furnish information to one another, to promote good roads, fair taxation, the making of road maps, and the thousand and one things in which motorists are interested.

"Perhaps the most valuable feature of this national relationship is in the reciprocity it provides. For 23 years the American Automobile association has held nearly all the motor clubs together for their common good and that of their members. If you are a member of a motor club affiliated with the A. A. A., you are entitled to the courtesies of this great multitude of clubs.

"You may get courtesy without membership—the officers of the motor clubs are gentlemen. However, you will be regarded as a 'moocher', the motorists' designation of a 'deadhead'. Those who travel most have learned that in every state in the union and in every country of the world the radiator emblem of the A. A. A. or one of its clubs is worth its weight in gold. For one thing, it indicates that the owner is a man who is doing his share. It is a certificate of good character and good citizenship. It makes you a brother to good citizens everywhere.

"DAVID JAMESON,
"Former President, A. A. A."

There really is a mechanical man that talks. We've seen him. But he doesn't say anything except: "Yes, my dear."

The Diary of a New Yorker
BY CLARK KINNAIRD

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Hotel managers say the average visitor coming to the city "takes in" more sights than the permanent New Yorker ever sees.

"The visitor spends much of his time here visiting places the New Yorker has never heard about or only knows through reading," one of them says. "New Yorkers spend their lives in the city without ever having really seen it."

* * *

Being a millionaire, the king of popular song writers and the son-in-law of a father-in-law who objects to him, but nevertheless is one of the world's richest men, hasn't put a high hat on Irving Berlin's head. He doesn't forget friends he had when he was none of the above things; and he likes to tell about the time when he was a waiter down in Nigger Mike's, in Chinatown.

"I'm afraid I was a pretty poor waiter," he says. "I tried to make up for it by singing a little song now and then, and rattling off a tune by ear on an old piano."

Being so bad a waiter that he had to sing to keep his job is what led him into song writing, and a million.

* * *

Another thing you can get for nothing in New York—soot in the eye being the other—is a free photo. All- commuters on the New York Central may call at a photograph studio on the three days in the middle of the month, and get "shot" for nothing. On other days a charge is made. (A photo of the owner must be attached to every commutation ticket.) But most persons neglect the matter and join the rush in the last few days of the month, so that few commuters get their pictures for nothing.

* * *

Incidentally, railroad men report that almost as many persons leave the city in the morning to work outside as enter the city from suburban towns to go to business.

* * *

Fifth avenue today has the most colorful fashion parade in the world, because women wear any and all colors nowadays. Times have certainly changed since a blond dared not go beyond blue, and a brunette would not attempt to wear any colors but those ordained for her type. Those were trying days for red heads.

Something, possibly prohibition, has given women a flamboyant new freedom as far as colors are concerned.

"The Little Church Around the Corner" (Episcopal) still is the most popular marriage church in New York, and it attracts many couples from all over the country. Marriages in it are popularly believed to be exceedingly lucky. But its marital luck is reserved for new romances only, for its rector, the Rev. Randolph Ray, and his associates refuse their ministry to divorced persons.

* * *

Which reminds me that synchronization of motion pictures is making a church rich. Because of its perfect acoustics, Trinity Baptist church, in Camden, is being used for creation of sound effects for the new style movies produced by two big companies, and passersby hear surprising noises issuing from the place. It is paid heavy rentals for the privilege.

Woman Distance Runner Breaks World's Record

Fraulein Radke Of Germany Sets New World's Record In 800-Meter Event

LARVA SETS NEW OLYMPIC MARK

OLYMPIC STADIUM, AMSTERDAM, August 2.—One world's record fell and an Olympic record was toppled today as the Americans continued to "take it on the chin" in the running events of the Olympic program. The world's record went to Fraulein Radke, of Germany, in winning the 800-metre ladies championship in 2.16 4-5, bettering her own mark with seconds to spare. The Olympic record was made by Larva, of Finland, who won the 1,500-metre final in 3.53 1-5, bettering Nurmi's mark by 2-5 of a second but failed to eclipse the world's record for the distance.

Ray Conger, the only American survivor of the heats, finished last in this race. The best Miss Rene McDonald, Boston, could do in the ladies race was sixth. Levi Casey, Los Angeles, made the best American showing of the day in any final event by placing second to Oda, of Japan, in the hop, step and jump.

RE-DECORATING TWO CHURCHES

First Presbyterian And First Methodist Churches Being Repainted

Work is progressing rapidly on two New Castle churches that are being painted and redecorated throughout their interior. The First Presbyterian church at the corner of Jefferson and Falls street and the First M. E. church at the corner of Jefferson and North are being painted.

The Presbyterian church will be completed in the course of two weeks, according to Mr. Weaver of the Myers-Carey Contracting Co., who are doing the painting jobs. Workmen have been engaged for the past two or three weeks and the church auditorium is practically completed. The painters have moved their apparatus and scaffolds to the Sunday school rooms and work has been started on them.

Work in the interior of the Methodist church has just begun and will not be finished for three or four weeks if then. Repairs are being made in the plaster today prior to the first coat of paint. According to Mr. Weaver, supervisor of the painting, three weeks time will find the church completed if nothing unexpected turn in the way and retards the progress of the workmen.

One-half of the church must be kept free from materials and painting in order that at least a part of the church may be usable.

Pennsy Maintenance Employes Are Given Increases In Wages

Raise Of Wages Of Railroad Men On Pennsylvania Division Affects 25,000

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 2.—About 25,000 maintenance of way employes of the Pennsylvania railroad will receive a wage increase ranging from one cent an hour to $17 a month retroactive to July 16 as a result of a conference at Lancaster yesterday, Pennsylvania officials disclosed today.

The increase is a result of negotiations which have been in progress for the past month. Among those affected blacksmiths, cooks, pumpers, machinists, trackmen, welders and carpenters.

Workers who have been in the employ of the road for only one year will receive the minimum increase while workers who have been with the railroad two years will get two cents an hour increase, thus the rate increases with the length of service of an employe but not at this rate for all workers. Foremen and supervisors will receive the maximum increase of $17 a month.

Y. M. C. A. Campers Return To City

Sixty Boys Back From Outing At Camp Along Slippery Rock

Sixty boys, tired but happy, returned today at noon from the New Castle Y. M. C. A. camp on the banks of the Slippery Rock creek, two miles from Harlansburg. They were accompanied into New Castle by Robert L. Meermans, general secretary of the Y, and John C. Leonard, boys secretary.

The Y. M. C. A. camp will be in use again Monday, August 6, when the New Castle Girl Scouts will start a two weeks' camping period.

Fifteen boys were awarded the camp emblem for supremacy in athletic, mental and religious tests at a final camp fire, which took place Wednesday evening. Shortly after breakfast this morning the boys broke camp.

Earlier in the week, the Y. M. C. A. campers defeated the scouts at Camp Phillips at baseball by a score of 13 to 3. A hare and hounds chase was the feature of Wednesday afternoon. Sage's hares bested Llewellyn's hounds in a long and thrilling run.

Tuesday evening was parents' night at the camp, Led by Jack Llewellyn, an excellent program was given by the boys.

Appreciates Aid Given Family

In a communication today to The News Mrs. Frank Logue of Frank avenue, whose home and contents were badly damaged by fire on last Monday expresses her appreciation of the efforts of their neighbors and others who did everything possible to alleviate their condition following the fire.

The Logue family is large and their home was not only gutted by the fire but all their furniture and clothing was destroyed. They had no insurance and the loss sustained is complete.

P. H. C. Picnic At Park Today

Members of the Protective Home Circle are picnicking today at Cascade park. Delegations are here from Mercer, Lawrence, Beaver and Butler counties. During the afternoon a program of athletics was staged and dancing was in vogue in Rainbow terrace.

Clean-Up Of Open Bars In New York Only Begun Declares Treasury Head

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Openly operated bars in New York city have become a national scandal, Acting Secretary of the Treasury Seymour Lowman declared today in announcing that the clean-up drive on Broadway "has only just started."

The federal government has no intention of milesting the hip-flask toters or ingading private homes but open bar rooms are a violation of the law and must go, according to Lowman.

"While the prohibition bureau and justice department are concentrating just now in New York, other cities throughout the country where there are open bars or where night clubs are openly violating the law, will receive adequate attention," Lowman said.

At the office of Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant attorney general in charge of prohibition, it was stated that the justice department is not operating exclusively against the New York night clubs and bars, but is prepared to make drives in all cities where evidence develops of big scale violations of the liquor laws.

The justice department was given an additional appropriation of $60,000 by the last congress for special activities in connection with the enforcement of the prohibition laws. Additional attorneys and other personnel to prepare the legal phases of dry cases have been employed.

"Raids, arrests, fines and even jail sentences are not adequate to meet the New York situation," Lowman said. It is necessary to close the night clubs and bars by injunction where the dry laws are violated flagrantly.

"We intend to push the campaign in New York and close by injunction every night club that does not abide by the law."

After the New York situation is cleared up the prohibition bureau plans to extend its activities to other cities.

Lowman asserted that there is nothing of political nature in recent activities of the dry unit, adding that enforcement is taking its normal course in view of the widespread violations of the law.

Pennsy Employes Can Secure Stock

Plan Arranged Whereby Employes Can Purchase Stock In Company

Announcement coming forth from divisional headquarters of the Pennsylvania railroad in this city today is to the effect that the board of directors of the company under the authority of its stockholders, has adopted a plan to enable a large number of its officers and employes, and also those of its subsidiary companies, to become permanent stockholders in the company.

The plan is that approved by the interstate commerce commission during the past week—to permit the railroad company to issue another block of stock consisting of 350,000 shares, at the price of $50 per share, their par value.

Subscriptions for shares are being received by the company officials at the present time and will continue open for all company employes until August 31. Enough shares are being issued so that each of the railroad's 175,000 employes can take out two shares each. If it appears that not all of the employes will subscribe, the number of shares will be divided among and that number allotted to those desiring the stock. The maximum number of shares one may purchase, however, will be 10, no one being permitted to subscribe to any more than that number.

Missionary Conference Will Open On Friday At New Wilmington

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Aug. 2—With the opening meeting tomorrow evening, this year's session of the New Wilmington Missionary conference will officially open its week of Christian meetings. Beside the regular program, there will be a special evening speaker or speakers.

Friday evening Dr. Wade C. Smith of the Southern Presbyterian church will give his "Crayon Talk on the Cross" in the tabernacle. Saturday evening a missionary from each of the foreign and home fields will tell a bit of his work. This Sabbath, Dr. E. C. McGown of Mt. Lebanon U. P. church and Dr. W. B. Anderson of Philadelphia will speak alternatingly morning and evening at the tabernacle and the local U. P. church.

On Monday evening the tabernacle pulpit will be filled by the most outstanding Christian layman of Egypt, Sheik Mitre Dewari, who is secretary of the Sunday School Association of Egypt. Tuesday evening is Young People's night and the program will be arranged by Benjamin McGrew.

Dr. Charles R. Watson, president of the American university of Cairo, will speak next Wednesday evening and a pageant, "The Color Line," will be given Thursday evening. On next Friday, the final day of the conference, Dr. M. J. Taylor and Dr. W. R. Sawhill will occupy the tabernacle pulpit.

Again this year Dr. Mills J. Taylor is the head of the conference and Samuel Shane and Donald McClure again occupy the manager and assistant manager positions. The boys', girls' and adult Bible hours will be taught by Glenn Reid of the Sudan, Miss Anna Milligan of Philadelphia and Dr. J. B. Work of Tarkio college.

At 10 o'clock each morning following the Bible hour there will be conducted ten mission study classes under the direction of Miss Emma Hensil of Philadelphia. Dr. Wade C. Smith will conduct the daily institute hour which is scheduled at 11 o'clock.

After recreation each afternoon and a 6 o'clock dinner each evening, three vesper services will be conducted. John Smith, camp manager, will take charge of the boys' vespers, Miss Anna Milligan will take charge of the girls' vespers and Dr. M. J. Taylor will officiate at the adult vespers.

Ready To Start Vare-Wilson Probe In Allegheny County

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 2.—The stage is set here today for the United States Senate's investigation into Allegheny county's election records of the Vare-Wilson senatorial battle which begins August 15.

Arrangements have been made for the senatorial investigating committee to make its headquarters in the county courthouse. Approval was given at a meeting of the commissioners at which A. E. Hurshman of Philadelphia, an attorney representing the committee was present.

The committee, headed by Senator Charles W. Waterman, has given no indication as to how far the investigation will be carried. It is believed, however, that the election will be given an airing from beginning to last, from the advertising and letting of contracts for the printing of ballots to the final payments of election expenses at the close of the election.

It is understood that subpoenas are now being prepared for the many witnesses expected to be called before the committee.

The investigation results from missing records in the senatorial contest between William S. Vare and William B. Wilson. The records were reported missing last March when John T. McGrain, deputy sergeant-at-arms of the U. S. Senate, appeared before the county commissioners with a subpoena demanding election data. He was informed that the records had been destroyed.

Davis May Attend Political Meeting

Mercer Republicans Plan Meeting At Sharon On September 10

MERCER, Pa., Aug. 2.—A political meeting to be held in Sharon with Secretary of Labor James L. Davis as the principal speaker is being talked of by County Republican Chairman L. R. Rickard for during the week of September 10 when Secretary Davis will visit Mercer county as the guest of the Old Home Week association of Mercer.

If the time of the official will permit, it is the desire of Mr. Rickard to hold the gathering as the initial Republican rally when Secretary Davis will be given an opportunity to talk to his former friends and neighbors.

Republic: A government by the temporary groups that have the most noisy grievance.

It costs very little to recondition a MODEL T FORD

FOR nearly twenty years, the Model T Ford led the motor industry and it still is used by more people than any other automobile. More than eight million Model T Fords are in active service today—an indication of their sturdy worth, reliability and economy.

The cost of reconditioning the Model T Ford is small because of the low cost of Ford parts and the established Ford policy of charging all labor at a standard flat rate.

For a labor charge of $20 to $25 you can have your motor and transmission completely overhauled. This price includes new bearings, reboring cylinders and any other work necessary. Parts are extra.

Valves can be ground and carbon removed for $3 to $4. The cost of tightening all main bearings is only $6. The labor charge for overhauling the front axle is $4.50 to $5—rear axle assembly, $5.75 to $7.

New universal joint will be installed for a labor charge of $3. Brake shoes relined for $1.50. Rear spring and perches rebushed for $1.75. The cost of overhauling the starting motor is $3. A labor charge of approximately $2.50 covers the overhauling of the generator.

Repainting runs from $10 to $25. Taking dents out of body panels and doors runs from $3 to $16 for labor. A fender can be replaced for a labor charge of $1 to $2.50. The cost of fenders runs from $3.50 to $5.

It will pay you, therefore, to see your Ford dealer and have him put your Model T in good running order. By doing so you will protect and maintain the investment you have in your car and get months and years of pleasant, reliable transportation at a very low cost per mile.

Mine Fire Squad Averts Disaster

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Pa., Aug. 2.—Quick action of the mine's fire squad was today credited for preventing what is believed would have been a serious disaster when a gas pocket in the Arden Mine of the Pittsburgh Coal Terminal Company became ignited yesterday.

More than 200 miners were trapped in the mine by the fire which started when sparks from a cutter operated by two men ignited the gas pocket. The two men operating the machine escaped and spread the warning, mine firemen extinguished the blaze before it spread.

BELIEVE MORE THAN ONE ASSASSIN SHOT OBREGON

(International News Service)

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 2.—That Jose de Leon Toral was not the only man to fire bullets into the body of President-Elect Alvaro Obregon when he was assassinated in a restaurant at San Angel on July 17 was indicated today by testimony in the preliminary hearing at the San Angel Court.

There were 13 wounds in Gen. Obregon's head and body whereas the pistol used by Toral contained only 10 cartridges.

Contrary to reports that the body was removed so quickly no autopsy could be conducted, it was revealed in court that an autopsy was held. The finding of the doctors holding the autopsy was introduced in court and proved the number of wounds in the body.

It is the belief of the police that Gen. Obregon walked into a death trip when he went to attend the dinner in honor of his election and that he never had a chance of escaping alive.

The autopsy made it evident that more than one man had fired, but this fact was overlooked in the excitement attending the assassination.

One theory of the police is that there may have been half a dozen political enemies in the restaurant who went there with the avowed purpose of killing the president-elect.

The police hypothesis is that July 17 was the date set for Gen. Obregon's death and that La Bombilla restaurant, the scene of the celebration banquet, was the spot selected for the murder.

Preliminary hearing of Toral continues with the examination of witnesses who knew Toral or have knowledge of the tragic events at the San Angel Banquet.

Gen. Antonio Rios Zertuche, chief of police, is convinced that Toral has not yet revealed all. They are trying to get the details of his connection with the "dynamite gang" which placed a bomb in the chamber of deputies building some months ago with the evident intention of trying to kill adherents of Gen. Obregon.

Manuel Trejo, who is alleged to have furnished Toral with his pistol, is said to have been a member of this organization. Despite the vigorous search by the police no trace of Trejo has been found.

SPEED LIMITS BEING RAISED TO AID SAFETY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—According to the American Automobile Association there is an increasing tendency on the part of the various states to raise the speed limits in the interests of safety.

A survey recently made shows that 23 states have wiped out the age old speed laws and that the main thing in safe traffic today is "move on". Drives to eliminate speed traps has done much to facilitate the movement of the ever increasing hordes of automobiles throughout the nation.

There has been a tendency to believe that "speeding" has not caused the accidents, but that the facts of the case must be considered. The fast driver is generally the one who is on the safest side and has fewer accidents.

Many, many accidents, state the association, are caused by persons who pull out of a line of slower moving automobiles.

Enraged Cleveland Railroad Detective Stages Fatal Shooting In Home Today

(International News Service)

CLEVELAND, Aug. 2.—Thomas Lear, 49, a railroad detective, early today shot and killed his wife in their home here, probably fatally wounded his stepson and then turned the gun on himself. He is reported near death in a hospital.

The tragedy is said to have resulted when the stepson, Frank Meyers, 25, asked Lear for money, the latter refusing. Mrs. Lear took her son's part in the argument, according to the report, and the husband, enraged, whipped out a pistol and shot them both.

At City hospital, Meyers was reported to have two bullet wounds in his head and another near his heart, while Lear has two wounds in his chest. Neither is expected to recover. Mrs. Lear was killed instantly.

ARREST SCORE OF FISHERMEN

State Game Wardens Make Arrests At Lake Wallenpaupack For Law Violations

(International News Service)

HAWLEY, Wayne County, Pa., Aug. 2.—More than a score of fishermen charged with violating the fish and game laws, today were ordered to pay fines ranging from $100 to $150 after being arrested by fish wardens headed by J. C. Haffley of Harrisburg, at Lake Wallenpaupack near here.

The lake was opened to fishermen yesterday after being closed for two years while it was being stocked. Some of the fishermen taken into custody were accused of fishing without licenses while others were said to have taken fish from nursery water near the lake. At least ten of the anglers were unable to pay fines and were placed in jail after being taken before a justice of the peace here.

Fully 3,000 anglers swarmed to the lake the first day, taking out thousands of bass, pike and pickeral. Some of the pickerel weighed four pounds and one pike measured 30 inches in length.

Wharton-Cleaver Stand Convicted In Mail Robbery

Former Illinois Assistant State's Attorney Guilty Of Conspiracy

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Aug. 2. — Attorney Charles S. Wharton and Charles (Limpy) Cleaver today were found guilty of participating in the $133,000 Evergreen Park mail robbery last February.

Wharton, former congressman and erstwhile assistant state's attorney, was found guilty on one count only —that of conspiracy. It carries a penalty of two years imprisonment and $10,000 fine.

Cleaver, Wharton's co-defendant, was found guilty on seven counts. The total of penalties are 82 years imprisonment and $10,000 fine.

Completing Plans For Old Timer's Day

Preparations for the twenty-second annual Old Timers Day at Cascade Park, August 15, are nearly completed, it was announced today by W. T. Butz, secretary of the Old Timers Association.

The reception committee will be announced in a few days, it being in the course of compilation at the present time.

So many responses have been received from invitations sent former residents, now residing elsewhere, that there is ever indication that there will be a larger number than usual present from a distance.

Weather conditions being good, Secretary Butz is confident that attendance will exceed that of last year, when it was estimated that twenty thousand people were present.

REPORT STEAM SHOVEL DOES MUCH DAMAGE

Large steam shovel to be used by the contractor grading Leasure avenue between Mercer street and Wilmington avenue, on Wednesday was taken up Mercer street, one of the latest of the city's new paved streets. The cleats were not removed from the wheels and the result is, according to a number of citizens, who investigated, that the new paving has been badly damaged during the entire length of the route of the shovel up Mercer street. The cleats went not only through the coating of tar but as much as half an inch into the brick, knocking out great chunks of the brick in places.

RESCUERS NEAR COURTNEYS PLANE

Steamer Radioes That It Is In Vicinity Where Plane Was Forced Down

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Rescue was near today for Captain Frank T. Courtney and his three companions, forced down at sea in their attempted flight from the Azores to Newfoundland.

The steamship President Hayes radioed that she had reached the position of the plane, about 500 miles west of the Azores, given in the wireless message with which Courtney swept the steamer lanes with a plea for help.

The President Hayes was one of a fleet of five rescue ships that raced to Courtney's aid after the big seaplane, the Whale, dropped into the ocean. The others are Minnewaska, the Columbus, the Cedric and the Celtic.

From the Radio Marine corporation's wireless station at Chatham, Mass., came the news that the first of the rescue fleet had reached Courtney's position. The radiogram read, "Informed that steamship President Hayes is on position given by Courtney plane. Now searching."

More Ellwood Scouts Join Boys At Camp

The roster of Camp Phillips has been increased since C. R. Knally, assistant county executive, brought four more scouts to camp Wednesday from Ellwood City.

The honor of attaining the most honor points Wednesday goes to Joe McConahy, who made 275 points, while Charles Zeigler came second with 215 honor points.

A 14-mile hiking party went to McConnells Mills. The scouts were in charge of James Charbonnier and they took their lunch with them and as it was an ideal day for hiking the boys enjoyed themselves very much. The scouts that went were William Mintier, Louis Hooker, Alfred Howard, Harold Brown, Paul Kisselman, Jim VanGorder, Bud Perdue, Bill Bishop and LaVerne Jones.

A great many tests are being passed this period and the leaders are putting forth a good bit of effort to have the scouts pass their tests. The following tests were passed Wednesday: First class swimming, Harry Brown, Bob Ferris and Louis Hooker; first class signalling, Jack Cole and Bob Ferris; first class cooking, Bob Allen, Bob Morrison, Bill Mintier, Fred Kendrick, Bill Donaldson and Louis Hooker; second class cooking, David McBride, Harold Morrison, Robert Brown, John Thompson, Joe McConahy, Charles Hertzog and Bud Perdue. The cooking test was given at noon by Ralph McKim and the boys were required to eat what they cooked in order to pass the test. The following merit badges were passed Wednesday: Tom Grittie, automobiling; Harold Aggas, automobiling; John Allison, civics; Bob Brown, pathfinding; Jack Marshall, woodcarving; Tom Parlett, pioneering.

The inspection was again won Wednesday by Hut Rentz of the Kit Carson stockade with a score of 97 per cent. This stockade has won the inspection six times this period and Leader Jack Stevenson says he will keep it the remainder of the period. The other stockades are working hard for it but they seem to get beaten out by the Carsons.

A treasure hunt was held after the evening games which sent the scouts hurrying around the camp grounds and surrounding country in search for clues and notes. The winning stockade was given 15 cents trade at the camp trading post.

Wet And Dry Battle In West

Democratic Director For Rocky Mountain Region Discusses Campaign

TELLS GOV. SMITH HE IS OPTIMISTIC

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—An out-and-out wet and dry fight in the Rocky Mountain states will decide the presidential contest for that sector, according to a survey presented to the Democratic high command today by Fred W. Johnson of Rock Springs, Wyo., recently appointed director of the Salt Lake City regional headquarters.

Johnson told Chairman Raskob of the national committee that the Democratic prospects in the Colorado basin states are better this year than at any time since the second Wilson campaign in 1916.

Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, who was vice-presidential running mate with the late Senator Robert M. LaFollette of Wisconsin on the third party ticket in 1924, will win the progressive vote from the Republican ticket throughout the entire territory, according to reports sent to Johnson's headquarters.

"In every state but one in these eight," Johnson continued, "the combined Davis and LaFollette vote in 1924 exceeded the Coolidge vote. Because of Wheeler's candidacy on the Democratic ticket this year we have by far the better chance of capturing the entire third party vote of 1924."

Seven senators are to be elected in Johnson's bailiwick this fall. Senators Ashurst of Arizona, Kendrick of Wyoming, King of Utah, Pittman of Nevada and Wheeler of Montana, all Democratic incumbents, are standing for re-election. Senator Cutting, appointed to the seat of the late A. A. Jones in New Mexico, must stand for election, and faces a hard fight since he was appointed to the Republican side of the upper chamber to fill a death vacancy on the Democratic side. The seventh seat is the Gooding vacancy in Idaho.

An additional advantage for the Smith forces, according to Johnson's report to Chairman Raskob, lies in the fact that the state governments of Colorado, Montana, Utah and Arizona are now in the hands of Democratic governors.

Court Opinion Would Adjust Henley Affairs

Judge Chambers Hands Down Opinion In Mahoning Township Case

In an extremely lengthy opinion handed down Wednesday Judge James A. Chambers presents the court's proposal for the adjustment of the difficulties involved in the case of Thomas J. Henley and Sarah E. Henley against I. Miller Henley and Aurie C. Henley and concerning the interest of Thomas J. Henley in the property of John Henley, deceased, consisting of 117 acres in Mahoning township and royalties from a limestone lease on said lands by the G. W. Johnson Limestone company.

According to the review of the case, Thomas J. Henley held a one-fourth interest in the lands and a one-eighth interest in the royalty from the lease on the lands, which had previously belonged to his father John Henley. He was administrator under the will of his father, but resigned and I. Miller a nephew was appointed in his stead.

While the court records showed that he had transferred his interest to his wife, Thomas J. Henley, according to the defendants, had transferred or sold his interest to I. Miller Henley for a certain sum which the court found very small as compared with the actual royalty return of Thomas J. Henley. For this reason the court found that there should be some relief given the plaintiffs, Thomas J. and Sarah E. Henley.

The opinion and order of the court follows: That the plaintiffs, Thomas J. and Sarah E. Henley pay I. Miller Henley $2,225 with interest from June 20, 1925, also the further sum of $2,500 with interest from November 10, 1925, all royalties received by I. Miller Henley in the interest of Thomas J. Henley from the lease of the G. W. Johnson Limestone company to be credited against these payments and further that the plaintiffs pay Aurie C. Henley $1,000, the amount of a mortgage given by Thomas C. Henley to her with interest from December 7, 1925, also costs of judgement and fees up to $50 and that the assignment of June 20, 1925 and the conveyance of November 10, 1925, of Thomas J. Henley of his interest in the royalties and mineral lease in the lands of John Henley, deceased to I. Miller Henley be cancelled and delivered by I. Miller Henley to the plaintiffs and that the title and interest of Thomas J. Henley in the lands and mineral lease of the property of John Henley deceased be vested in Sarah E. Henley.

Rushkin was placed under arrest, but details of the slaying have not yet been made public.

Girl Swimmers In Distance Race Are Forced To Give Up

Two Of Girls Attempting 16-Mile Swim Are Stricken With Cramps

(International News Service)

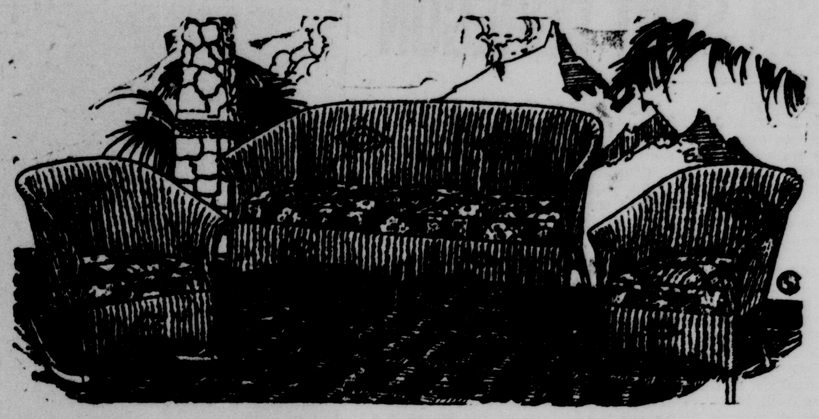

CHESTER, Pa., Aug. 2.—The attempted swim of three local girls from Philadelphia to Market street pier here in the Delaware river today nearly ended in disaster when Charlotte Ewing, 20-year-old school teacher, was seized with cramps a mile above this city and had to be rescued from drowning.

Miss Tillie Kupsis, 17, was also seized with cramps, but fought them off until she and her companion, Clara Linski, 17, gave up the swim opposite the Sun Shipbuilding Company's wharf, three blocks from their goal.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

The Story Of Our War With Spain
The Battle Of Manila Bay—Part III

AT 7:50 A. M. (MAY 1, 1898), AFTER THREE HOURS OF INCESSANT FIRING, IT WAS INCORRECTLY REPORTED TO COMMODORE DEWEY THAT THE AMMUNITION OF THE AMERICAN SQUADRON WAS RUNNING LOW. DEWEY SIGNALLED HIS SHIPS TO DRAW OUT OF RANGE.

THE SQUADRON RETIRED TO A SAFE DISTANCE, WHERE AN INSPECTION OF THE MAGAZINES SHOWED THAT AN ABUNDANCE OF AMMUNITION REMAINED. MEANWHILE, DEWEY, MINDFUL OF THE COMFORT OF HIS MEN, ORDERED BREAKFAST SERVED TO THE GUNNERS AT THEIR STATIONS.

A MEETING OF THE CAPTAINS, WHO CAME ABOARD THE "OLYMPIA" TO REPORT THEIR CASUALTIES, REVEALED THE AMAZING FACT THAT AFTER THREE HOURS OF FIGHTING NOT A MAN HAD BEEN KILLED, NOR A SHIP MORE THAN SLIGHTLY DAMAGED IN THE WHOLE AMERICAN SQUADRON.

WHEN THEY SAW DEWEY WITHDRAW, THE SPANIARDS, WHO WERE SUFFERING GREATLY AND ALREADY CRIPPLED, MADE THE MISTAKE OF THINKING THEY HAD BEATEN HIM. THEY AT ONCE CABLED TO SPAIN THAT THEY HAD WON A GREAT VICTORY. BUT THE REJOICING THAT GREETED THIS MESSAGE IN MADRID WAS SHORT-LIVED.

TOMORROW—THE BATTLE OF MANILA BAY (Concluded).

Allano To Test Welsh Fighter

Has Fought Midget Wolgast Two Sensational Battles

SHOULD BE FAST ACTION IN PRELIMS

By ED. FRITZ

Tex Rickard will have his spyglass trained on Jolly Bowl Monday night, when two of the greatest flyweights in the world clash in a 10-round bout which will have all the color of a championship fight.

Davies has been advised that the national boxing commission and the New York state ring solons have received his challenge to Champion Izzy Schwartz and that the corporal will be asked to defend his toga against the Welshman.

Allano has already battled sensationally twice against Midget Wolgast, champion of Pennsylvania, and is now trying to secure a third match. Allano includes among his victims such spectacular performers as Marty Gold and Young Denico.

Fears No One

As Davies is seeking the national championship and Allano is trying to clear him from the path, the fans who are sure to pack the bowl to the last of the 5,000 are certain to see a classy battle.

When Allano fought Wolgast the bouts were sensational—so much so, in fact, that Wolgast has been tincanning from Allano since the bout. Davies took on Allano to prove that he is not afraid of any boxer in the world.

During recent weeks Allano has been fighting often and had won from such good boys as Marty Gold, Matty White, Phil Tobias, Young Denico, Pee Wee Ross, Ray Corbett, Mickey Larkin, Charlie Lewis, Eddie Leonard, and drew with Charlie Ray.

All of the boys, 112-pounders, have made themselves stars by their batting in eastern rings, while Davies has appeared in all the ring centers of the East and West, and Allano, far better than Cavelli, will give him the fight of his career.

Hot Battle Here

Jimmie Belmont, McKeesport, and Young Vivo, Pittsburgh, rival 145-pounders, who are hot under the collar for a good crack at each other, have been matched to fight the semi-final of six rounds, and indications are there'll be no idle moments.

Belmont and Vivio are said to have staged the most thrilling bout in recent months at Pittsburgh and when they signed to settle their differences here it was for the purpose of picking a neutral battleground.

Mickie Dugan, the clever Polish boy who sports an Irish name, will appear against Monte Sirko, of whom great things are spoken by his manager. Dugan put a crimp in the aspirations of Jacinto Valdez and hopes to do likewise to Sirko.

Sirko Is Good

There is a feud between Sirko and Frankie Porto and as Frankie's ear is sore from a recent bout Sirko was picked to show how he would stack up against Porto should the latter sign, something Sirko's manager says he won't.

The two blackbirds, Spike Henderson, Brooklyn, and Sandy Taylor, Cleveland, will put on another four-round bout, and if they don't furnish plenty of laughs and thrills, the Jolly Bowl fans will miss a guess.

Last Monday night these dancin' black bottomers went through a fight that was a hit with the crowd. "Ah don' jus' need six punches next time," said Spike. "Yoh can throw five of 'em away, brudder, because ah'm gonna take you and take you quick," said Sandy.

The first bout has not been arranged.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

By ED. FRITZ

Abe Espinosa snatched the Chicago golf championship from Frank Walsh, Appleton, Wis., with a 65 for the course.

Babe Ruth got his 42nd home run as the Yankees won from the Browns yesterday.

Alec Samuels is hustling for the Harold Haid day August 10 at Pittsburgh. A big crowd will journey to Forbes field.

Mickie Solomon will be out of the ring for some time having undergone an operation for appendicitis.

Maxie Strub last night turned down an offer to fight Paris Cangie here until the latter part of August.

George Perotta is anxious for a second whack at Young Firpo. The defeat gave George an awakening.

The game between the Havana Red Sox, Cuban outfit and the Centennials will start at 3:15 p. m. Saturday.

Field Club Wins In Easy Fashion From Grove City

Team Match Is Followed By Dinner At Which Visiting Team Are Guests

Golfers of the New Castle Field club and the Grove City Country club met in a match team play on the golf course of the New Castle Field club Wednesday afternoon.

While the locals had that natural advantage of playing on the home course ,the visitors twenty-two in number, included a number of fine players, which made it necessary for the local team members to play first class golf in order to win by the rather one-sided score of 53-13.

Many of the local players were in top form in the team play and prevented their visiting opponents from scoring any of the three possible points.

Following the match, the members of the visiting team were guests of the local team at dinner. The two teams will meet again later in the season at the Grove City course.

The team members and their respective scores follow:

Babe Ruth Hits His 42nd Homer

(International News Service)

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 2.—Babe Ruth needs only 19 more home runs in the Yankees' 52 remaining games to set a new record of 61. The master mauler's 42d homer of the current campaign, made against the Browns here yesterday, put him 27 days, 25 games and eight homers ahead of his 1927 pace.

It Was Only Done Once, Gene

Poor old Jim Jeffries couldn't stay "retired" when Rickard jingled $100,000 under his nose, and was kayoed by Jack Johnson in fifteen rounds.

Will handsome Gene show more strength of will than did the massive Californian? Mebby so, but old John W. Ringside is skeptical.

Heavyweight Boxers Now Taking It Easy

Tunney Is Planning Trip To Europe; Heeney Will Return To Australia

Tommy Loughran To Bid For Title Given Up By Gene Tunney

By SID MERCER.
International News Service Special Correspondent

NEW YORK, AUG. 2.—With Gene Tunney in retirement and preparing for a short vacation trip to Canada Tom Heeney preparing to return to New Zealand, Jack Dempsey making a personal appearance in Boston, Tex Rickard lolling on his yacht somewhere off Long Island and the rest of the 600 millionaires resuming their regular occupations, the pugilistic cauldron came down from a boil to a gentle simmer today.

New York will see little of Tunney until late in October. Today he is host at a luncheon to Commander Rickard Byrd, famous aviator-explorer; his brother, Governor Byrd of Virginia and a few intimate friends. Various other social functions will claim his time until the first of next week when he departs for Canada. He sails for Europe on August 16.

Heeney and his three brothers will sail from Vancouver for New Zealand on August 26. Tom will spend a month or six weeks visiting his parents in Gisborne. He has been offered some matches in Australia but plans to return to New York early in November. It is probable that Tex Rickard will arrange a heavyweight tournament match for Heeney within the next ten days. Tom expects to be at it again here in December.

Heeney Got $60,000.

With his managers 'cut' out Heeney presumably received about $60,000 for his share of the Tunney fight. That brings his American earnings for 18 months up to more than $200,000.

Rickard's absence on a one-day cruise prevented further check-up on the possibility of Jack Dempsey returning to the ring next spring. Tex may deny it but he has Dempsey tied up and in a mood to fight again.

Tommy Loughran assumes an unusual role, belligerent attitude in nominating himself as one of the new heavyweight contenders. Tommy asserts that he has driven three champions into retirement. He refers to Tunney, Jack Delaney and Mike McTigue.

Though Promoter Yumbert Fugazy still has hopes that Loughran will defend his light heavyweight title at Ebbets field against Leo Lomski this month Tommy says he will not fight again until September. He then expects to have it out again with Jim Slattery. Win or lose he will then give up the title and seek matches with the heavyweight contenders.

One of the matches which might have been a good early number for Rickard's eliminations has been snatched by Detroit promoters. Jack Sharkey and Pierre Charles, Belgian champion, will collide in a ten-round bout in the Michigan metropolis on August 20.

Loughran Seeking Heavyweight Title, Goes To New York

(International News Service)

WILDWOOD, N. J., Aug. 2.—Tommy Loughran, light heavyweight champion was summoned to New York by the Empire State's Athletic commissioners for a conference with the commission and Tex Rickard. Loughran left at once.

It is believed the conference will pertain to Tommy's entry into the heavyweight tournament to be conducted by Rickard in an effort to develop Gene Tunney's successor to the heavyweight throne.

Loughran had announced he would file claims with the New York and Pennsylvania Athletic Commissions to the title vacated by Tunney.

DEWBERRYS TO PLAY RYANTOWN FRIDAY

The Dewberrys will clash with the Ryantown team of the National section of the Twilight league at the Ryantown field on Friday night. The game will start at 6:30 o'clock.

The Dewberrys have lost but two games this year and have a strong team.

These Battlers Mean Business

Ed Fritz, matchmaker for Billy Jolly's bowl, today received $100 forfeits from Allano and Davies, each for Monday's battle.

Writing from Philadelphia, Al Lippe, manager of Battling Levinsky, who appeared here, said: "Fritz, you booked a good boy in Allano."

After signing articles, Jim Buchanan, manager of Davies remarked: "Maybe you don't know it but I turned Allano down twice. That boy's a tough egg."

Harry Neff, manager of Allano, wrote yesterday: "Allano is in great shape and will take New Castle by storm. He is a rip and tear fighter."

Davies and Allano will arrive the day before the bout. They will stop at the Leslie. Local Welshmen are preparing to greet Davies.

Huff And Jones Go To Scottdale

Will Get Chance In Mid-Atlantic When Next Spring Comes

Jock Simco, scout, yesterday signed Mickie Huff, third baseman and Bub Jones, center fielder for Edenburg to play with Scottdale, Mid-Atlantic league next season.

Jock who is also a licensed boxing judge, came here at he solicitation of Tommy Blake and watched the two play last evening.

The Mid-Atlantic season closes this month but when the spring siren sounds Huff and Jones will be with the "Scotties."

Mahoning Gun Club Will Shoot Tonight

The Mahoning Gun Club will stage their weekly shoot tonight at six o'clock, daylight savings time at the Mahoningtown range, said Dr. Carpenter today.

The shoot tonight is open to the public and everybody is welcome to come and bring their gun. The Mahoning Gun Club has staged some mighty fine shoots this year and they have been highly interesting.

Ramirez Combs Cuba To Get Stars, He Tells Carm Sacco

LOCAL TEAM SECOND IN O. & P. CIRCUIT

By ED. FRITZ

Carm Sacco, the business head of the New Castle baseball team, which is piloted by George Textor, hopped through the door today, and with a big,broad smile on his face declared that the New Castle team and Havana Red Sox would cross bats, as the old-timer was wont to say, Saturday afternoon at Centennial field.

According to Sacco, the Havana Red Sox is a colorful aggregation of Cubans which has been playing around New York, and tiring of the scenery, took to the road, and while barnstorming signed to play here.

According to Carm, the Sox is a genuine Cuban attraction and each player was selected by Manager Ramirez for his speed and ability. He claims to have made a tour of the isle to get the team, which has only one American colored boy on the roster.

Aggregation of Stars

The line-up, as Carmo told it with all its embellishments today, follows:

Funes, left fielder; fleetest of all Cuban outfielders.

Ferrer, third baseman; the "Lindstrom" of Cuba.

Teron, second baseman; former Cuban star sensation and a "grand ole man" as Ramirez describes him.

Ramirez, himself, the center fielder, who played with the Lincoln Giants, Baltimore Black Sox, good aggregations.

Lauzan, first baseman, the champion first sacker of the Havana Cigar League.

McLarnin-Loayza To Meet Tonight

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Aug. 2.—More than 18,000 fight fans will watch the 10-round bout at Olympia tonight between Jimmy McLarnin and Stan Loayza. The gate is expected to total $90,000. McLarnin is a 7 to 5 favorite.

Discussing The Discus

By Feg Murray

One of the surprises of the final Olympic tryout at Boston was the failure of Eric Krenz the defending champion to qualify in the discus-throw. Not so many weeks earlier on that same field Krenz had sailed the Grecian pie-plate a distance of 154 feet, 11 inches, to set a new record and win first place in the I. C. 4. A. meet. As he won the shot-put that same day breaking another record he was a double favorite to capture the shot and discus in the meet on July 6 and 7.

According to several eye witnesses one of them a qualifier in the finals of the discus-throw, 'a rather silly and tragic mistake was made by one of the field judges which may have deprived Krenz of the chance to represent his country in that event at Amsterdam.

The official in question measured the wrong spot in the ground on Krenz's best heave and he was thus deprived of four feet or more on his throw which would easily have put him in the finals the next day. The story came to Lawson Robertson head Olympic coach and he insisted that Krenz make four throws the next day even though the referee would not let them count for points or the right to throw the discus in Holland. "Robbie" according to rumor told the big Stanford boy not to worry that he would get into his favorite event at Amsterdam.

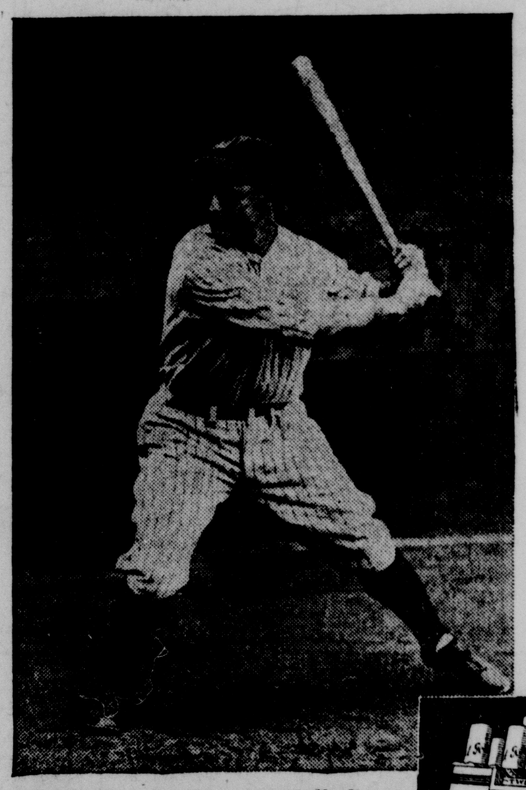

Dr. Clarence ("Bud") Houser, double Olympic winner in the shot and discus in 1924 at Paris made a fine come back by throwing the platter 153 feet 6 1-2 inches to win the championship. "Bud" now a flourishing dentist in Los Angeles is a great competitor and will be a hard man to beat at the games. A german, Hoffmeister, is said to have broken Houser's world's record of 153 feet 1 3-4 inches this year. If Krenz gets into the competition Hoffmeister will be up against he best discus throwers in America each of whom has thrown the platter more than 160 feet in practice.

"The First Time I Saw "

The first time I saw Bill Tilden he was playing in a singles match and he made an impossible get, for which he had to run far outside the court. He turned it into a sizzling cross-court shot that his opponent couldn't even touch. Big Bill's momentum carried him up in a grass embankment and he ended up at a stand in front of the spectator's where he calmly helped himself to a glass of water.

...nson Hurls Yanks To Win

Johnson Pitches Great Ball For Yankees And Gets Five Hits At Bat

ATHLETICS WIN ANOTHER GAME

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Young Hennery Johnson, whose chief pitching weakness in other years was that his hat was too small for him, will be pardoned by his teammates on the New York Yankees today if he should suffer from a recurrence of the same trouble. For in St. Louis yesterday Hennery pitched a full nine-inning game and won it, a feat which for a New York pitcher is rarer than a day in June.

Johnson beat the Browns 12 to 1, and made it a perfect day by hitting five clean singles in as many times at bat. He was ably assisted by Babe Ruth, who contributed his 42d homer, and by Bob Meusel.

Indians Lose

The Yanks failed to increase their lead over the fast-stepping Athletics, however. The A's downed Cleveland, 6 to 4, for their ninth straight win and their 16th victory in their last 17 starts.

The Browns have lost seven in a row and are having a hard time staving off the bids of Cleveland, Chicago, Washington and Detroit for the third place berth. The White Sox captured both twins of a twin bill from Boston yesterday, 4 to 2 and 7 to 3, and tied Cleveland for fourth place. Young Ed. Walsh scored his second victory over the Red Sox in the nightcap, stretching Chicago's winning streak to five games.

Scoring seven runs in the first inning, Detroit plastered Washington by a 10 to 5 score. In the seventh Hargrave smacked a homer with two on.

Rain washed out all scheduled games in the National League.

Ryantown Trims Edenburg 3 To 2

Ryantown hung a 3 to 2 defeat on the Edenburg team at the Ryantown grounds Wednesday night. By virtue of their victory the Ryantown team takes the leadership in the National section of the Twilight League.

The game was a pitchers' battle between Hofmeister and Wilcox, with the latter having the edge. The game was nip-and-tuck the entire way. The Ryantown team won the battle by shoving over their third run in the final half of the seventh. Orlando was the feature hitter of the game, with three hits, including a triple. Rogers hit timely for Edenburg with three safe blows.

CHURCH MANAGERS TO MEET TONIGHT

An important meeting of the New Castle Church League managers and officials will be held tonight at the Y. M. C. A. at nine o'clock, daylight saving time.

It is asked that all managers attend this meeting, as there are some mighty important matters to be discussed.

Some Apple Knocker

By QUIN HALL.

HURLING the discus may be all right for some of these youthful athletes who have a desire to distinguish themselves over at Amsterdam during the Olympics, but it isn't such good exercise for a fellow who is pretty well along in years and is more interested in distinguishing himself on the baseball field than in becoming an Olympic idol.

In fact Goose Goslin, the heavy slugging outfielder of the Washington Senators, has about decided to give up discus hurling entirely and not even bow if he should meet one all dressed up right out on the hotel corner.

Of course there was a time when Goose really looked flirtingly at a discus. Speaking quite frankly, Goose even fondled one of the things and tossed it about a bit in more less of an amateurish manner.

But Goose discovered that a discus is nothing more or less than a fickle saucer. After he'd been good enough to play around with it during the training period down South, what happened? He woke up to find that his right arm was of almost no use to him and a right arm is especially necessary to the business of outfielding and that is what the Washington Senators were paying him a salary to do.

Discovering that the discus had played him a dirty trick, Goslin started to train up his left wing so that he could continue as an outfielder and be able to toss the apple in from the outer garden without running into the infield before he made his throw. He finally got to a point where he could get distance in his left-hand pegs, but the direction was something about which he was still doubtful.

He worked a few games for the Senators but he was out of the line-up as much as he was in it—and all due to his ambition to be a playmate of a mere discus. Eventually he went to see a bone-setter in Battle Creek.

All that had happened to Goslin was that back in his discus hurling days he had yanked his collar bone out of place. This had caused soreness across his ribs and tied up the muscles of his right arm above and below the back of his shoulder. The dislocation had prevented the arm from rotating properly in its socket. Nothing much but certainly enough to make a first-class outfielder shy far away every time he sees a discus.

He was advised to nurse the old wing along, and the knowledge that he would soon be as good as new has put new life into the well-known fence-buster. In fact, Goose has gone into the battle with renewed vigor and has been socking the apple with such regularity that he has taken his place with the heavy hitters of the American League, and it wouldn't be at all surprising to see him finish up the season among the top-notchers.

Goslin always hits well and usually finishes well over the .300 notch, but this year it was feared that his little affair with the discus might toss him off his stride, and an outfielder who can't throw accurately and who can't hit isn't of much value to a major league ball club.

But Goose seems to have fully recovered from his efforts to become a noted discus tosser, and in the future will devote all his time to playing around with the horse-hide covered implement of his own trade.

The heavy clouting Senator probably agrees that there's a lot of truth to that thing about "teaching old dogs new tricks."

Cardinals-Yankees Face Stiff Battles In Retaining Leads

New York Yankees In Throes Of Biggest Losing Streak Since Season Opens

St. Louis Cardinals Will Not Have Easy Time In Capturing Flag

By DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Can it be possible that the St. Louis Cardinals and the New York Yankees may front-run their respective fields right along into the baseball pennants, greatly comforted by the fact that each has exactly one really reliable pitcher? It not only can be but is. The Yanks may be blowing them like the noon whistle at the good, old brass knuckle factory as they make haste like a delayed steal or something in their journey through the west but a 5½ game lead with only fifty-two to go is neither to be laughed off nor at.

There are only a couple of differences between the situations confronting the Yankees and Cardinals, one of which is that the former has only one club to beat and isn't making much of a play for it. The second is that the Cardinals can lose to any one of four clubs and are steadfastly refusing to be a party to such a proceeding. A third is that the Yanks are going and the Athletics are coming while the Cards seem to have their field well in hand.

Yanks In Slump.

They have been in the lead since June 16 and, what with the recent Yankee debacle and in spite of the nine straight just reeled off by the Athletics, have played the most consistent baseball of any outfit in either league. The fact that the Yankees are not winning now with their customary aplomb is quite understandable in view of the fact that Pennock alone has been able to give them a nine-inning ball game from time to time during recent weeks and that class ABC catching staff is such that it would make even good pitchers look comic.

The Cardinal's ability to stay at the pace is equally understandable although for a different reason. They have no comedians behind the plate. Jimmy Wilson, in fact, is one of the best catchers in baseball and the rest of the club, barring its pitchers, is almost fool proof. Bottomley is playing great ball at first base and hitting .350. Frisch may not be up with the pace he set last year but the management has received almost no complaints about him to date. Maranville is living his life all over again at shortstop and Holm is making a regulation lathe hand's job of it at third base, just a good union worker putting in his day. High has proved excellent infield insurance at second and third, too.

Outfield Is Good.

There is nothing the matter with that outfield, either. Hafey may not be able to see them all the time but when he does, which is often enough, they go somewhere with much haste. Douthit finally has arrived after several years of promise without fulfillment. Blades and Harpers are getting away with the other field nicely, Harper's right field hitting having been especially acquired for those adjacent stands in St. Louis. In this respect, the Southworth deal of 1926 is being repeated, John McGraw having been hornswoggled on both occasions.

Both the Cardinals and the Yanks will have to win their pennants on the road, if they are to do it at all. There should be nothing particularly trying about this situation, for while the Cards have done none too well on this present trip, they won eleven out of thirteen from the eastern clubs the last time out. The Yankees likewise have been a sound road club for three seasons, up to but not including their existing tour of the west.

The Cards, of course, are far from out of danger. There always is danger with a club that has to reply so consistently on an old timer like Alexander to pitch its winning games. This gentleman can't go out there and pitch with the abandon of other and maybe better years but he is doing plenty as it is; in fact, much too much, if you want the word of seven other managers. The rest of the staff seems to have withered on the vine. Sherdel is just a fairly steady left hander now; Haines has given evidence of overwork; Rhem as an in and outer, mostly the latter and Mitchell is only an "occasional," being good against certain clubs and less than nothing against others.

Giants Threaten.

If the club is to go on to the pennant in stride or is to be challenged in the stretch probably will be determined in the series with the Giants, starting here on Sunday. For the McGraw entry, always a staunch finisher, is playing a lot of baseball right now and, if a Cardinal club that is wobbling slightly can hold them even or win the series, it will have little more to fear from this particular sector and probably will start east for the final trip on September 12 with a fair lead to work on. But if the Giants win the series after what they did to the Cubs, it will be no man's cinch to keep them at their distance. Somehow, this club generally is favored over the Reds as the ultimate contender.

As for the Athletics and Yankees, they virtually are through playing each other, which is just too bad from a New York standpoint. The Yanks owed much of their long lead in the early season to their ability to beat the Athletics, since both were able to win from the other clubs with equal readiness. But then this may not be such a break for New York, at that. The Yanks might not be able to beat this new club with its Cobbs and Speakers sitting on the bench out of harm's way.

This race is not over, as everybody thought. It is only beginning but naturally the outfit with a lead must be favored until further notice.

Observe Birthday Of Queen Mother At Olympic Games

Olympic Athletes Observe 70th Birthday Of Belgium Queen Mother

By HARRY R. FLORY
International News Service Staff Correspondent

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 2.—The 70th birthday of the queen mother was observed at the opening of today's Olympic track and field events. A band played the Dutch national anthem while the men stood with bared heads. The crowd was again small, as the rowing enthusiasts had gone to Sloten for the sculls events.

The sky was overcast, with a threat of rain in the air.

Ray Barbuti, former Syracuse University star, won third heat in a canter in the 400-meter trials in 49 4-5 seconds. Lavan of Ireland was second. Emil Snider of the New York Athletic Club won the second heat in 40 2-5 seconds. Prinsen of Belgium was second. Merman Phillips of the Illinois A. C. took the first heat in 49 2-5 seconds. Dupont of France ran second.

The first two runners of each preliminary heat qualified for the second round.

Luis Morera, pitcher, who beat Adolph Luque's team on several occasions.

L. Johnson, pitcher, who is a colored player recently secured from the Monarchs, who took Stringbean Williams' place with the Havana outfit.

Cueria, utility player, who will soon go to the Florida Cuban Giants.

New Castle Also Good

And now that Ramirez has told Carm all about his team, which can play real baseball, let us add that they will meet a good team, every one of whom is a star, and that is why New Castle has the best team it has had in 20 years.

According to Carm, the baseball fans from all over the city are sure to see a good game. If the Sox are like the Homestead Grays, New Castle will have a real battle.

At the present writing New Castle is second up in the O. & P. race. Akron is first and Beaver Falls third. Cleveland is fourth and Canton is in fifth position.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

Sports Writer for Central Press and New Castle News
By NORMAN E. BROWN

The result of the challenge round of the Davis cup matches between the United States and France was almost a foregone conclusion before the teams met.

It is to be presumed that the United States team was much more formidable with Tilden leading the valiant fight than without him.

Not only that, but in addition to making the sporting gesture, the French players have made their victory clearcut by their generous action toward Big Bill.

No one can utter the thought that "it might have been different had Tilden been in there."

And as for Tilden.

He sung what may have been his swan song in a clear, firm voice. Facing Rene La Coste after four defeats in tournament play, Big Bill turned the French ace back in brilliant fashion. Then against the equally dangerous Cochet the American veteran waged as heroic a battle as the game boasts.

Through 40 games they fought it out. The scores, 9-7, 8-6, 6-4, but partly indicate the struggle Tilden waged to stave off, if only temporarily, defeat in the cup play.

It would have taken another victory in the singles in addition to Tilden's victory to bring the cup back to the United States, but Tilden was content to let that added victory take care of itself.

Now bring back the discussion relative to the degree of atrociousness attached to Tilden's violation of the amateur rule.

Remember what it was all about? Few do.

As one reads of Tilden's efforts, the whole thing reeks with its pettiness.

HILLSVILLE-RYANTOWN WILL PLAY TONIGHT

The Hillsville and Ryantown teams of the National section of the Twilight league will play a scheduled league game tonight at 6:30 o'clock at the Hillsville field.

The Ryantown team is now in first place in the loop and a victory tonight will give them an extra hold on the pennant race.

N. Y. STOCKS

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—The rally in industrial and mercantile stocks received a setback in early trading today as the result of professional selling based on the unsatisfactory credit situation. The New York Reserve Bank, in its monthly circular, stated that the banks were at present "overloaned," and criticized the policy of borrowing from the Reserve bank on "eligible paper" while loaning on stock and bond collateral to the stock brokerage houses.

American Can, General Motors, United States Steel and other speculative favorites sold off from one to three points in the first hour as offerings of stock flooded the market. Profit taking and liquidation in anticipation of a new increase in brokers' loans to be shown after the close of the markets today was also a factor in the heaviness of the market in this period, according to Wall street reports. Losses in the high-priced specialties extended to about 5 points.

Indiana Refinery Blast Death Toll Mounts To Eight

Fifty-One Injured, Many Seriously, Result Of Blast At Indiana Refinery

(International News Service)

VINCENNES, Ind., Aug. 2.—The death toll of the Indiana Refining company's still explosion at Lawrenceville, Ill., west of here, rose to eight today with the deaths of six more of 51 injured men. Physicians feared that at least ten more of the injured would die.

The still exploded during a fire at the plant with a deafening roar and showered more than 150 fire fighters with burning oil. The men that were the most seriously hurt inhaled the flames.

Thirty-six of the injured were rushed to the Good Samaritan hospital here while 15 received treatment at Lawrenceville.

Radio Strides Are Shown By U. S. Statistics

By ROBERT S. THORNBURGH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—The phenomenal forward strides of the United States in development and employment of radio communication is disclosed by figures by the radio division of the commerce department.

In 1927 in operation in the United States were 20,814 transmitting stations of all classes and 13,821 in other countries. The 1913 figures showed 2,974 foreign and 2,110 American stations.

In numbers of stations the American amateur exceeded any other classes in this country or the world with 15,926 transmitters in operation at the close of the year. Despite the gradual narrowing of the restrictions against amateurs they still are contributing much to radio development and are achieving transmitting and receiving records that parallel those of the big commercial corporations.

Praise Amateurs.

Radio commissioners and private engineers attribute much of the progress made in American development to the work of the amateurs who attacked wireless transmission first as a plaything and gradually built it up to a world-wide communication system.

United States had 694 broadcasting stations and probably 12,000,000 receiving sets in use at the end of last year. Experts estimate a night radio audience of probably 20 per cent of the population of the country. Undoubtedly this audience is increased to over 50 per cent of the population during the broadcasting of national events such as political conventions, world series baseball and heavyweight championship prize fights.

The foreign broadcating system has not developed to the extent of that in America. There are several reasons. The purchasing power of the foreign population is not so great, making it impossible for the people to buy sets as they are purchased in the United States. Restrictions are placed on the operation both of sets and transmitting stations while there are other factors to prevent the progress of the United States.

Undoubtedly the big expansion of broadcasting in United States is due to the fact that radio has become an excellent advertising medium. Most big corporations which have competitive articles to sell the public maintain highly paid entertainers who appear weekly over the broadcasting chains.

Advertising Methods.

The advertising methods of the more important corporations are not offensive and detract little from the entertainment value of the programs. The percentage of advertising time taken up in the program is not as great as the advertising space in the newspapers or magazines and the wise advertisers are taking care that their methods of selling do not become offensive to the public.

There are about 185 experimental stations in operation in United Stases maintained by universities, manufactures of broadcasting and receiving equipment, communication companies, newspapers and private engineers. These stations are making large contributions to the wireless transmitting art.

The government has 1,203 ship stations and 33 land stations most of them operating outside the broadcast band between 200 and 600 meters.

American Oarsmen Win Olympic Races

(International News Service)

SLOTEN, HOLLAND, Aug. 2.—Kenneth Myers, America's representative in the single sculls today defeated the South African Dekok in the first round of the event which marked the opening of the biggest rowing regatta in Olympic history.

Pulling smoothly and seemingly with effortless ease the blond railroad fireman from Philadelphia defeated his opponet by two lengths.

Myers time for the 2,000 meters was eight minutes 14:1-5 seconds.

In the pair oared shells without coxwain, Paul McDowell and John Schmitt of the United States, defeated Van Wolckson and Van Dendriesche of Belgium by four lengths. Time eight minutes and 15 seconds.

The Americans led over the entire 2,000 meter course getting out in front at the start.

National Guards On Ranges Today For Last Firing

(International News Service)

CAMP GORDON, TOBYHANNA, Pa., Aug. 2.—The 43d field artillery brigade today entered the final stages of its field training with a slight letdown in the strenuous program. This morning the regiments went to the ranges for the final firing of the year.

Brigade officers said that very good results have been obtained during the training in firing. The brigade headquarters battery was today occupied with collecting the wire used in maintaining communications during the firing exercises. All units were constantly in touch with each other during the two weeks' work.

This afternoon an inter-regiment field meet will be held on the polo field. Nine events are scheduled and some stiff competition is expected.

The 107th field artillery of Pittsburgh has its crack team entered, while the 109th regiment of Wilkes-Barre has an equally strong team selected.

Colonel Eric Fisher Wood, commanding the 107th, is acting as brigade commander during Brigadier General William S. McLean's visit to Mount Gretna. General McLean is expected to return tomorrow.

Seven Inches Of Rain Falls Here In July

According to the report of the branch of the United States weather bureau located at the plant of the New Castle Water company for the month of July there was not only quite a variation in temperatures during the month but also an exceptionally large amount of rainfall.

The rainfall for the month was the greatest since that of 1912 which was 6.70 inches or 0.08 higher than that of July this year when the total precipitation was 6.62 inches. The greatest precipitation on any one day during the past month occurred on the 20th when it totaled 1.83 inches, being in effect a cloud burst here.

During the month there were 28 days on which precipitation was .01 inches or more. There were nine clear days, 16 that were partly cloudy and six that were cloudy.

The mean maximum temperature for the month was 85.8 and the mean minimum temperature was 60.9 while the mean temperature for the month was 73.4. The maximum temperature was 95.0 on the 9th while the minimum temperature was 48.0 on the 29th. The greatest daily range in temperature occurred on the 7th and was 34.0. The temperature was 0.8 degrees above normal.

Two Minor Traffic Mishaps Reported

Two traffic accidents, both of a minor nature, took place Wednesday evening, according to the reports made to the New Castle police department.

Steve Plano of R. F. D. 2 reports that when he was about to make a left hand turn from North Mill into Falls street Wednesday evening, another car coming down Highland avenue, ran into his machine doing some damage to both cars. He failed to get the license number of the other machine.

Harry Freshwater of 229 North Crawford avenue, while driving west on Long avenue and about to turn into South Jefferson street, was hit by the car of Leonard Rich of 638 Cascade street. Damage was done to the machines.

Parents Pay For Broken Windows

Three little boys appeared before Mayor William H. Gillespie at a special session of police court this morning. They were charged with throwing stones and breaking windows.

Accompanied by their parents, the boys were taken into the office of the chief of police. There they lined up, and there they heard the advice of the mayor.

As a result, they will no longer throw stones and break windows. And their parents will pay the sum of $2.85 for the damage that they have done.

Maybe George D. Noebling, Greenwich Village habitue and scion of wealthy Philadelphia family, is a throwback to the age of chivalry—or something. At any rate he fought a duel for his "ladye fair" and then tried to take his life because he couldn't get a job as an actor. The lady in question, Billy Netcong, is pictured consoling him in Knickerbocker Hospital, whither he was taken after leaping 75 feet to the hard pavement in Morningside Park. He's going to recover, marry Bill and live happily ever after.

The Way OF THE World

By GROVE PATTERSON

THE BIG PENNY

Most of us find it hard to be convinced that a penny has any value. It seems too small to be reckoned with. Buy a cigar and the clerk will either give you a little pack of matches or sell you quite a box of them for a cent. Who could make any money out of pennies? The facts about a penny business may give us something to think about. The gross business of the 18 match manufacturing concerns in this country in one year was nearly $25,000,000. These plants paid out more than $4,000,000 in wages. Don't fail to respect the power of the penny.

THE COST OF SICKNESS

What is it costing you a year to be ill? A report to the International Conference of Social Work estimates illness in the United States costs each family $134.68 a year. Cost per person is estimated at $31.08. It would be interesting to know how much our bills for sickness might be cut down by a little more common sense and will power in the matter of eating and sleeping.

TOLERANCE OF DRESS

The lack of tolerance for individuality is a pretty sad thing. We read that one of the principal cities of Bolivia passed a law that the native Indian inhabitants of the city must abandon their bright colored skirts, odd hats, and other quaint apparel which they have been wearing for hundreds of years, and must adopt the European fashion of dress, like the rest of us. That's too bad. Little by little all the folks of the earth are being standardized. In time they will be alike, from rubber boots to religion. This is the ideal of the professional "hundred per center." It's a narrow attitude which cares little for beauty, for freedom, and for self-expression.

CORN STORIES

An Indiana farmer announces that his corn grew six inches in 24 hours. He kept tracks of two stalks from 9 a. m. one day until 9 a. m. the next. That doesn't sound so much like statistics as it does like a challenge to neighboring states to beat the corn or beat the story.

CONTACT

Call on as many people as you can. Talk to them face to face. Do all the business you can by personal contact. This ought to be advice for salesmen. Letters and telephone talks lose much business. If you don't believe in the power of contact, think what the traveling of the Prince of Wales has meant in good will to the British empire.

Two Arrested On Serious Charges; Father Sells Girl

Sixteen-Year-Old Girl Tells Of Being Sold Into Marriage By Her Father

(International News Service)

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Aug. 2.—Two men were under arrest here today facing serious charges while police sought a third in connection with a story of brutality told by 16-year-old Helen Garnock, who claims she was "sold" into marriage.

The three men whom the girl accused are Arthur Foye, William Collins of Fairchance and Howard Hardin.

In a statement made to local authorities the 16-year-old girl claimed she had been "sold" into marriage by her father for $100. Her husband, she said sold her for $50 to his half brother.

The girl claimed that her back was seared with a hot poker when she objected to the $100 mariage transaction. Her father she said came from Superior, Wis. For the last two months she has been living at the home of William Totten in Smithfield.

Temporarily Stop Resurfacing Job

Councilman Clayton H. Reeves today stated he had ordered a cessation of resurfacing of Long avenue as the employes are needed more in other sections where they are cleaning away debris washed on streets and sidewalks during a recent storm.

More Are Signing Up As Guarantors For Muny Golf Course

More and more names are coming into the New Castle Chamber of Commerce, to be attached to the petition which was recently presented to city council, asking for the use of the old city poor farm for a municipal golf course, according to James W. Cole, secretary of the chamber.

Those who sign the petition pledge to pay a sum of $20 a year for a two year period for the upkeep of the course. Those who are interested in the project still have time to put their names on the petition, according to Mr. Cole.

ENGINEERS WILL DRILL ON FRIDAY

According to the statement of Wm. R. Walter of Company B, 125th Engineers of the Pennsylvania National Guard, the regular weekly drill will be held on Friday night August 3.

It is important that all be present in order to receive federal pay for the period ending June 30.

No one will receive pay who is not properly uniformed and is on the floor to answer roll call at 8 sharp.

RELIEF FROM CURSE OF CONSTIPATION

A Battle Creek physician says, "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause."

But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose.

Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c today at the nearest Rexall Drug Store.
